148th Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA
TUESDAY, MAY 3, 1932.

The One Hundred and Forty-eighth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled by appointment as above at 9:30 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Francis Marion Taitt, S.T.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Edward M. Jefferys, S.T.D., the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, and the Rev. Richard J. Morris.

The Bishop read the names of those who have died during the past Convention Year, with a special claim on our prayers:

Of Bishops of the Church:
John Poyntz Tyler
Theodore Irving Reese
Anson Rogers Graves
Cameron Mann

Of Clergy of this Diocese:
William Henry Cavanaugh
Thomas Bell
William James Cox
William Fred Allen
Simeon Lord Gilberson
Edward Marshall Frank
Lucien Moore Robinson
Floyd Williams Tomkins
Llewellyn Neville Caley

Of Deputies to the Last Convention:
Samuel Tobias Wagner
Richard P. Powell
John William Brock
Charles B. D. Richardson
Louis Pelouse Clark
Frank Leedom Jones
Alexis duPont Parker

(33)

Of Deputies to Former Conventions:

William Waterall	William Long Taylor
Benjamin Percy Chain	Frank O. Zezinger
William Vernon Phillips	Rufus H. Sanford

Edward Ellesworth Hendrickson

The offering was for the Missionary Deficit, amounting to $47.21. On Monday night the offering amounted to $230.93.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 10:45 A. M., and, a quorum being present, proceeded to business.

The Order of the Day being the election of a Secretary, the Rev. J. M. Niblo nominated

the Rev. Richard J. Morris

On motion, the nominations were closed and the President, having cast the ballot, declared Mr. Morris duly elected.

The Secretary appointed as Assistant Secretary

the Rev. Charles S. Lyons

The Convention confirmed the appointment.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

which was adopted:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

It is to be understood that the hours referred to in the program are those known as Daylight-Saving Time.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title as far as possible. And all through the Convention Resolutions to discharge Committees from further consideration of the subject be omitted, it being understood that they are so discharged unless the Convention recommit the matter to their further consideration, or unless the work of the Committee is unfinished.

The Rev. C. H. Long presented the

which was adopted.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Canon II, Section VIII. Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, Wardens of Missions organized under the provision of the Canon on The Organization of Missions, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of this Convention.

The Secretary read the Report:

The Secretary of the Convention reports

That during the past year he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

That under date of March 1 he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the Annual Convention, and on April 8 the Report of the Committee on the Study of the Cathedral Program.

That on February 1 only 46 of the Annual Reports of the Parishes and Missions had been returned out of the 227 due, many of them being very incomplete. He would ask once more that the Report blank be completely filled out, as all the figures are required for the Report to the General Convention and are a permanent record of the activities of the Parishes and Missions. This is the Report of the whole Parish and not merely of the Accounting Warden.

That boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibules of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That the following is Unfinished Business from the Annual Convention of 1931:

(1) Report of the Committee on the 150th Anniversary of the Diocese.
(2) Report of the Diocesan Campaign Fund.
(3) Report of the Committee on the Cathedral Program.
(4) Report by the Committee on Memorial to Bishop Garland.

That the following Parishes have not sent in Certificates of Lay Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies in this Convention: Trinity, Centreville; S. Peter, Great Valley; S. John, New London; S. Luke, Chadds Ford; S. Martin, Marcus Hook; S. Barnabas, Kensington; S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia; S. Elisabeth, Philadelphia; S. Luke, Bustleton; S. Mary, Philadelphia; S. Stephen, Wissahickon.*

The Secretary reports further:

That the following Parishes have not sent in Parochial Reports for 1931: Atonement, Morton; Christ, Franklinville; Covenant, Philadelphia; Gloria Dei; S. Andrew, Philadelphia; S. Bartholomew, Wissinoming; S. Luke, Newtown. S. John, Northern Liberties sent in a Report which the Bishop refused to accept. Also, of the 37 Missions and Chapels entitled to seats: S. Peter, Weldon; Transfiguration Chapel.

*Received later.

That the following Parishes have not paid the required Assessments for 1931: Atonement, Morton; Christ, Franklinville; Covenant, Philadelphia; Holy Nativity, Rockledge; S. Bartholomew, Wissinoming; S. James, Hestonville; Trinity, Ambler; Trinity, Buckingham; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and, that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. Frank Goostray — The Rev. R. H. Gurley
The Rev. E. S. Thomas

Claims of Laity to Seats:

Mr. C. L. Harper — Mr. J. L. Evans
Mr. George Hall

The Secretary reports that he has received from the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention a copy of 4 Proposed Alterations of the Constitution to be acted on in 1934, submitted herewith. On motion, these were referred to a Committee to report to the Convention of 1933.

The COMMITTEE ON A ONE-DAY SESSION OF THE CONVENTION presented the Report as follows:

The Diocesan Convention of 1931 adopted the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That a Committee of five Clergymen and five Laymen be appointed to consider the matter of holding a Session of the Convention of the Diocese on the Monday evening preceding the first Tuesday in May, 1932.

In accordance with the above Resolution, the Bishop appointed the following: The Rev. A. E. Clattenburg, D.D., Convener; the Rev. Messrs. H. W. Fulweiler, R. J. Morris, J. F. Newton, D.D., F. W. Tomkins, S.T.D.; Messrs. R. D. Brown, C. L. Harper, G. W. Jacobs, W. G. Price, Jr., W. I. Rutter, Jr.

The Committee met on February 1, 1932, together with the Bishop, and organized by electing Dr. Clattenburg as Chairman and Mr. Morris as Secretary.

After considerable discussion the following Resolutions, in accordance with the suggestion of the Bishop, were adopted:

(1) RESOLVED, That the Bishop be asked to confer with the Standing Committee with reference to a proposed Pre-Convention meeting of the members of the Diocese on Monday evening, May 2, 1932, in the Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia.

(2) RESOLVED, That the Bishop's offer to entertain the Clerical and Lay Deputies to the Convention at a dinner on the evening before the Annual meeting of the Convention be accepted with thanks.

(3) RESOLVED, That the Bishop's suggestion be adopted of holding a missionary mass meeting on the evening of May 2 in the Church of The Holy Trinity, at which time the Bishop's Annual Address will be read, together with an address by a Missionary Bishop or other speakers.

For the Committee, A. E. CLATTENBURG, Chairman.

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report as follows:

That in accord with Standing Order V, the Preliminary Ballot was sent out to 265 Clerical Deputies according to a list prepared by the Ecclesiastical Authority as entitled to vote and to the Rectors of the 143 Parishes in Union with the Convention (3 each) for the use of the Lay Deputies.

That from the 125 Preliminary Ballots returned the Official Ballot was prepared and sent to the Clerical Deputies and to the Lay Deputies whose election had been certified to the Secretary of the Convention under date of April 26th and to the Secretary of the Convention.

That the elections will be held in the usual manner in the Church House, the Clergy voting in the Assembly Room and the Lay Deputies in the room adjoining. The First Ballot will be taken at 1:45 P. M.

The Committee asks permission, owing to the size of the Ballot, to begin counting the same before the Polls are closed. This would seem to be necessary if the elections are to be completed in the one day proposed for the session of the Convention.

For the Committee, RICHARD J. MORRIS, Chairman.

On motion, the permission was granted.

The Secretary reported the Nominations for Offices to be filled by Elections, as certified to by the Committee on Elections. (See pp. 38, 46, 47, 48.)

Additional Nominations from the Floor were made as follows:

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: The Revs. M. E. Peabody, S. V. Wilcox; Messrs. C. R. Woodruff, J. A. Pearson. The Rev. F. L. Vernon withdrew his name.

STANDING COMMITTEE: The Rev. George Copeland, Mr. G. W. Jacobs withdrew their names.

DIRECTORS OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION: Rev. J. M. Collins withdrew his name.

There being no further Nominations, on motion the Nominations were ordered closed, and, where only a sufficient number had been nominated, the Secretary was instructed to cast the Ballot for those nominated; which having been done, the President declared elected the following:

STANDING COMMITTEE: Messrs. W. P. Barba, E. H. Bonsall, W. W. Frazier, Jr., S. F. Houston, P. S. Williams.

DEPUTIES TO THE PROVINCIAL SYNOD: Messrs. W. W. Finn, W. W. Frazier, Jr., Isaac Starr, William White.

ASSISTANT TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE: W. W. Finn.

TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND: Messrs. J. A. Harris, Jr., Thomas Newhall, C. S. W. Packard, Charlton Yarnall.

BOARD OF TRIERS: The Revs. W. B. Beach, D.D., Crosswell McBee, D.D.

CANONS OF THE CATHEDRAL: The Revs. J. O. McIlhenny, D.D., W. C. Patterson; Messrs. L. J. Morris, F. H. Moss.

DIRECTORS OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION: The Revs. F. C. Hartshorne, C. E. Tuke, D.D.; Messrs. R. D. Brown, George Hall, J. S. Newbold.

The Lay Deputies confirmed the election.

The Chair appointed the Tellers as follows:

CLERICAL VOTE: The Revs. A. C. Arnold, N. H. Caley, F. B. Downs, W. H. Fryer, H. W. Jones, W. R. McKean, J. C. Roak, W. M. Sharp, W. B. Stimson, David Holmes.

PARISH VOTE: Messrs. E. T. Newell, G. R. Miller, Jr., W. E. Ashburn, T. F. Auten, J. R. Barrows, A. W. Brown, W. F. Creighton, E. D. Frey, W. W. Gale, N. L. Murray, J. C. Settle, J. L. Stiffler, F. H. Tetu.

The Rev. W. M. Sharp presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

The Committee on Charters respectfully reports that it met on April 25, 1932, at the call of the Chairman, the Rev. Walter C. Pugh.

The Committee considered the application for approval of its proposed Charter and admission into union with the Convention of "All Saints Church, Crescentville." The Committee finds that this Church is a congregation having its place of worship in Crescentville, Philadelphia County, and that it has been duly organized in conformity with the Canon of the Diocese regulating the Organization of New Parishes:

That the proposed Charter is in the proper form, being substantially in that of the approved Form of Charter, and that it conforms to the requirements of the Canon and of Article IV, Sec. 2, of the Constitution of the Diocese:

That the proposed Charter has been approved by the Bishop, the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and the Committee on Charters concurs therein and recommends that it be approved by the Convention and offers the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the application of "All Saints Church, Crescentville," and its proposed Charter of Incorporation be approved, and the said Church be admitted to the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

W. M. SHARP, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Secretary called the names of the Lay Deputies.

Mr. Sharp continued the Report:

The application of The Church of The Messiah, Port Richmond, for the issuance of a new Charter was also considered.

The application is in the proper form and meets the requirements of the Canon and of Article IV, Sec. 2, of the Constitution of the Diocese.

It has been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters concurs therein and recommends that it be approved by the Convention, and offers the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the application of the Church of The Messiah, Port Richmond, for a new Charter of Incorporation under the name of "The Church of The Messiah," Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, be approved.

W. M. SHARP, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. Sharp continued the Report:

The Memorial Church of The Good Shepherd, Germantown, applies to the Convention for permission to amend the provisions of its Charter by means of a By-law with respect to the election of a Vestry so as to provide for the election of four members each year for a term of three years, instead of twelve members for a term of one year, as provided by the Charter. The Bishop and the Standing Committee have approved the application.

The Church of The Saviour, Philadelphia, also petitions the Convention for permission to amend the provisions of its Charter by means of a By-law with respect to the number of Vestrymen so as to provide for the election of not more than six members each year for the term of three years, and that the Vestry shall not consist of more than eighteen members.

Since the Bishop and the Standing Committee have approved an earlier application of the Church of the Saviour providing for the same change in Charter, the Committee on Charters recommends that the Convention grant permission to change this Charter through By-law, subject to the approval of the Bishop and the Standing Committee. The Committee therefore offers the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the applications of the Memorial Church of The Good Shepherd, Germantown, and of the Church of The Saviour, Philadelphia, to amend their Charters by means of By-laws be approved.

W. M. SHARP, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Rev. A. E. Clattenburg offered the following Resolution, which was seconded by the Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge, and adopted unanimously by a standing vote:

WHEREAS, The Diocese of Pennsylvania, under the mercy of God, has completed another Convention year, and, under the guiding hand and heart of our beloved Bishop, Francis Marion Taitt, S.T.D., be it

RESOLVED, That this Convention place itself upon record as being thankful to God for all His mercies vouchsafed to us, and especially for His servant our Bishop, who has been blessed of God in physical health and spiritual vigor to carry on so great a work in the Diocese. And, be it further

RESOLVED, That as a Diocese we pledge our loyal support to our Diocesan in all things that we, as members of his family in God, can aid him in, not forgetting that most important aid, the beseeching of God to support, guide, and bless him in all of the work to which his life is dedicated.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

That no Amendments to the Constitution or Canons have been submitted and that the Committtee has none to suggest.

The Secretary of the Convention called attention to the requirement of the Department of Vital Statistics in the City of Philadelphia that all marriages performed in the city must be reported to that Department.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese in a sum not exceeding ten thousand dollars for the purposes of the Sustentation Fund for 1933.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the

together with the Resolutions attached thereto.

The Rt. Rev. Frank W. Creighton, S.T.D., Missionary Bishop of Mexico, was presented to the Convention and invited to a seat on the platform.

The Rev. S. V. Wilcox presented the

MINORITY REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CATHEDRAL PROGRAM

and offered the following as a Substitute Resolution for all the Resolutions submitted by the majority:

RESOLVED, That the Committee be discharged.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop bade the Convention to Noon-Day Prayers.

After further discussion, Mr. Wilcox's Resolution was adopted on division, Ayes 204, Noes 161.

Mr. E. K. Price presented the

REPORT OF THE CATHEDRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST
(See Appendix J, page 336)

The Rev. A. E. Clattenburg offered the following Resolution, which was lost:

RESOLVED, That the Report be laid on the Table.

The Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Report be received.

Mr. R. D. Brown offered the following Substitute Resolution, which was accepted by Dr. Mockridge, and lost:

RESOLVED, That action on the Report be deferred.

The Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Report be received.

The Secretary announced that the Certificate for Lay Deputies from S. Stephen, Wissahickon, had been received and that this Parish has Lay representation in this Convention.

The Rev. J. F. Bullitt presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN CAMPAIGN FUND

The Polls were declared open at 1:45 P. M. until 2:30, and the Convention took a Recess at 1:05 P. M.

The Convention reassembled at 2:35 P. M., the Bishop in the Chair.

In the unavoidable absence of the Chairman, the Secretary of the Convention read the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE MEMORIAL TO BISHOP GARLAND

Your Committee on the Memorial to Bishop Garland begs leave to report that at a meeting held in November last, an organization was effected by the election of the Rev. James M. Collins and the Rev. B. Janney Rudderow as Chairman and Secretary, respectively.

Believing that its duty, as implied in the resolution adopted by the Convention a year ago, was to obtain and consider suggestions as to the nature of the proposed memorial, the Committee has confined itself for the time being to this effort. The Chairman, in accordance with instructions of the Committee, has addressed letters to official bodies in the Diocese and to interested individuals, requesting suggestions. Also, addresses on the subject have been made before meetings of several Convocations. Further, the matter has been called to the attention of the Diocese in two issues of the diocesan Church News.

While progress has been made, the Committee is not in a position to recommend any of the suggestions so far received, but hopes to be able within a reasonable time to lay certain suggestions before the Bishop and Executive Council.

We wish to take advantage of this opportunity to ask members of the Convention to keep this important matter in mind and to forward to the Committee any suggestions which may appear to be pertinent to the subject.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,

JAMES M. COLLINS, Chairman.

On motion, the Report was received.

The Rev. L. C. Washburn for the COMMITTEE ON THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE DIOCESE

reported the death of the Chairman, asking that a successor be appointed, when further consideration would be given and a Report prepared.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop presented by Title the

The Bishop's Annual Address

My dear Brethren:

It is a great joy to present to you my annual message. It has been to me a very happy year. Although there is seldom a day when I do not make from one to three public addresses, God has given me such perfect health, that not a single speaking engagement has been cancelled or postponed in the entire year.

Another cause of great joy is the uniform kindness extended to me by every member of the Diocese. There is not only mutual respect and regard between the Bishop and his people, but he believes that the same deep affection that he feels for every member of the Diocese is reciprocated on their part. This takes away all the toil and burden of work, and makes his Ministry one of great happiness.

"And this I pray, that your love may abound more and more in knowledge, and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness which are by Christ Jesus, unto the glory and praise of God."

Purpose of a Convention

The purpose of a Convention is not only to report to the Church the work of the past year, nor to pass such legislation as will help us in the administration of our work; but rather that from our mutual intercourse we may gain strength and inspiration and return to our posts with the sincere purpose of serving Christ more fully, and of bringing the power of His life to the help of the world.

First we think of those who having finished their course in faith, now rest from their labors.

Of the Bishops, there are:

John Poyntz Tyler
Theodore Irving Reese
Anson Rogers Graves
Cameron Mann

Of our Clergy, there are:

William Henry Cavanaugh
Thomas Bell
William James Cox—who for many years was Dean of the Convocation of West Philadelphia, and much beloved in his Church, and the man of his neighborhood.
William Fred Allen—a trained psychiatrist, who in the spirit of the Master gave himself unrestrictedly and lovingly to the unfortunate inmates of Byberry.
Simeon Lord Gilberson—second Dean of the Convocation of West Philadelphia; for many years Rector of old St. James, Kingsessing, and Secretary of the Evangelical Education Society.
Edward Marshall Frank
Lucien Moore Robinson—for many years Professor of Liturgics at the Philadelphia Divinity School, and Custodian of the Book of Common Prayer.
Floyd Williams Tomkins—probably the best known and best loved Clergyman in the United States.
Llewellyn Neville Caley—whose labors in the field of Religious Education were probably as great as any living Clergyman, and whose service was always voluntary.

Of the Deputies to the last Convention, there are:

Samuel Tobias Wagner
Richard P. Powell
John William Brock
Charles B. D. Richardson
Louis Pelouse Clark
Alexis duPont Parker

Of the former Deputies to the Convention, there are:

William Waterall
Benjamin Percy Chain
William Vernon Phillips
William Long Taylor
Frank O. Zezinger
Rufus H. Sanford
Edward Ellesworth Hendrickson

Of the noble women in the Diocese, there are:

Maude Fisher—who built and endowed Trinity Chapel, Crescentville.

Mary Elizabeth Avery—who was Librarian of the Diocesan Library.

Dorothea Emlen—Executive Secretary of the Church Mission of Help.

Catherine Ann White—great grand-daughter of Bishop White.

Matilda Baird—who labored so many years at the Church of St. Jude and the Nativity.

Elizabeth Price Martin—President of the Diocesan Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary, and forward in every good work.

Alice Lehman Edwards—widow of the late Rev. Dr. Robert A. Edwards and mother of the Rev. William Y. Edwards.

O may thy soldiers, faithful, true and bold,
Fight as the Saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia.

God takes the workers, but the work goes on. While we have not the advantage of their thought and effort, we have the inspiration of their lives. They being dead, yet speak. From their vantage ground we can think of them as looking down with intense interest upon our struggles, and we can say with the writer of the Epistle to the Hebrews, "Seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin that doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith."

Work of the Year

We thank God for many things accomplished in the past year. On May nineteenth I dedicated the Dobbins' Memorial Infirmary at the Church Farm School. This splendid, well adapted, and equipped building was much needed and was given by that loyal Churchman, Mr. T. Munroe Dobbins, who has later built two houses at the Church Farm School as homes for married teachers.

On June fourth I blessed an addition to the graveyard of St. Timothy's Church, Roxborough.

On June tenth I participated in the dedication exercises of China Hall, Croydon. This is the private gift of Mr. George Wilkins, whose work for suffering humanity is so well known in our city. It is designed as a home for married couples.

On June nineteenth I laid the cornerstone of a Nave for St. Peter's Church, Phoenixville. Probably over a score of years ago, a beautiful Chancel was built and there was expectation that a Nave of corresponding beauty would immediately follow. For some reason it was delayed until money was left for this purpose by Mr. William H. Reeves. The Nave was consecrated of foreign speaking people. Saint Sauveur, a French Church, holds its services in Holy Trinity Chapel with the Vicar of the Chapel as Rector. It reports 354 baptized persons and 125 communicants. It is endowed and self-supporting.

Our Foreign Work

St. John's, Northern Liberties, has an English-speaking Sunday School, and occasional English services. By permission of the Bishop in accordance with a Deed of Trust from the Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. John's Church, a Roumanian Orthodox congregation hold services also every Sunday.

We have four Polish congregations. One of these occupies the old Church of the Advent, York Road and Buttonwood Street, which reports 180 baptized persons and 107 communicants. Holy Redeemer is located on Richmond Street, with 421 communicants; a third, St. Mary's, occupies the Church of St. Stephen's, Wissahickon; and a fourth, Holy Trinity, has its own building in Conshohocken, with 179 communicants. All these Missions seem to be doing good work.

We have three Italian congregations. The largest, L'Emmanuello, is at St. Elisabeth's Church. Through the generosity of the Rev. Dr. Mockridge and St. James' Church, the Diocese has been relieved of the support of this work for the past two years. We want here to express our appreciation of this great kindness. St. Mary of the Annunciation is in Northeast Philadelphia. A new Church has been built for them this last year. They have 238 communicants. The third congregation is St. Francis of Assisi, worshipping in a rented building in West Philadelphia. Though less than a year old, the growth of this Mission is phenomenal.

In regard to our foreign work, I have no desire to permanently perpetuate it. We want services for those who do not understand our language, but their children should not be trained as foreigners but as Americans. There should always be an English Sunday School, a celebration of the Holy Communion in English, and a sermon in the same language. At St. Elisabeth's this is done, and with evident satisfaction. At the eleven o'clock service in English the Italian Clergyman takes part. The same is also done at St. Francis of Assisi.

There are fifteen places of public worship for colored people in the Diocese. St. Mary's, a Chapel of St. Mark's Church, under Father Craven; Philips Brooks, a Chapel of Holy Trinity Church, under the Rev. Edgar C. Young, D.D.; the Crucifixion, under the Rev. Robert T. Tabb, D.D.; St. Thomas', which is without a Rector; St. Simon the Cyrenian, a Chapel of Holy Apostles, under the Rev. John R. Logan, D.D.; Holy Spirit, under the Rector of All Saints, Moyamensing; St. Cyprian's, Elmwood, and St. Mary's, Chester, under the Rev. Arthur C. Moore; Ascension, West Chester, under the Rev. Cedric E. Mills; St. Cyril's, Coatesville, in charge of the Rector of Holy Trinity, Coatesville; St. Christopher's, North Philadelphia, under the Rev. James N. Deaver; St. Monica's, West Philadelphia, under the Rev. Richard Bright; St. John the Divine, under the Rev. H. DaCosta Harewood; St. Augustine's, under the Rev. Joseph H. Hudson; St. Barnabas, Germantown, under the Rev. E. Sydnor Thomas; and St. Augustine's, Norristown, under the Rector of St. John's, Norristown. In addition, work is also done at Lincoln University.

Colored Work

Each of these is doing fine work and most of the Churches have large congregations. It is a pleasure to visit them. It is interesting to know that in the above Churches we have over 3500 communicants, while the Diocese of North Carolina reports 807; South Carolina, 1207; Upper South Carolina, 319, or a total of 2383 for the two great states of North and South Carolina. These are the only three Dioceses that make a separate report for colored work.

During the last year we had the resignation of our much beloved Archdeacon Phillips. Having attained the ripe age of eighty-two, he desired to retire. He will long be remembered with affection by all.

Beside the above work, there are fifty-five Parishes and Missions that receive support from Diocesan Funds. Beside these a portion at least of the Chaplain's salary is paid at

Other Missionary Work

Galilee Mission
Mount Alto
State College
Seamen's Church Institute

Then we have many Institutions like the Episcopal Hospital, the Home for Consumptives, and the Church Farm School, etc. The work of the Diocese is varied and very important and makes its claim for your sympathy and support.

On my election as Coadjutor, a Canadian Clergyman said, "I suppose in the Diocese of Pennsylvania every Church is self-supporting." He was amazed when I told him there were seventy-four Missions and Aided Parishes. It is a great and wonderful work. To support these works requires large gifts from the Parishes. It is our policy never to give more for Diocesan than we appopriate to General Missions.

One great duty of the Bishop is to protect the Church from unworthy, or ill-prepared Pastors. Most careful restrictions are thrown around the professions of law and medicine. Our reputation and property are affected by law, and our bodies by medicine. Therefore, the law of the land endeavors to protect men from the unprepared or incompetent in both of these professions. Our souls, the immortal part of us, are trained, protected and directed by the sacred Ministry, but there is no legal protection of this profession.

Divinity Students and Divinity Schools

We have Ecclesiastical Canons, it is true, but they do not protect. A physician examines the body of each Candidate for Holy Orders to see that it is sound. Examining Chaplains examine the mind to see if it is functioning. The Bishop admits a Postulant, whom he has never seen until that moment. The Standing Committee passes upon his papers, signed by his Vestry, who in all probability would not know the Candidate should they meet him. The one upon whom we must depend then is the Rector, and sometimes it happens that he has had no familiarity with the Candidate and simply signs his papers because someone must sign them, and the poor fellow knows no one else, or has reasons unknown to his Rector for not applying elsewhere.

The Canon says the Bishop shall direct his studies; but nay! the Candidate directs the Bishop. He says, "I am going to such a College." "I will need so much help; but that is the College I will attend." After graduation he says, "Now I will go to such a Seminary." The Canons prescribe the time of Candidacy. He says, "Nay! I must have my time shortened." The Canons prescribe the studies. He says, "Nay! A dispensation can be granted from Greek, and I want it." Of course, he does not get it. While I am Diocesan these must be some unusual reason for shortening time; and no one under thirty-five years of age shall get a dispensation in Greek. Every Priest in the Church of God ought to be able to read the New Testament in the language in which it is written. It is the source book of our profession. Every Candidate for Holy Orders should spend the Canonically prescribed time in thought and prayer before entering the sacred Ministry, and our definition of Consecration should be, "willingness to do hard things for Christ."

We are not suffering for want of Candidates. The time has come when more men apply than can be placed. The Divinity Schools make their selections by scholastic attainments; but they are not the only nor the greatest thing that should be sought in a Candidate. There ought to be an intelligent conviction of the truth of the divine revelation in Jesus Christ. The purpose of the Divinity School is to furnish him with an equipment whereby he can teach and defend this conviction against the world.

Every professor in a Divinity School is supposed to believe the doctrine of Christ as this Church hath received the same, and by the absolute devotion of his life to his particular branch, to be able to fortify the students committed to his care. They enter the School believers, they should come out warriors for their faith. There ought to be closer connection between the people and the Divinity School. I wish that in this Diocese an annual offering would be taken in every Parish for our Philadelphia Divinity School. The School needs it. With expenses of more than twice the income from endowments, it must have annual support from other sources.

On April 17, 1932, the report showed that the Churches of the Roman Communion in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia had collected $283,498 for the support of St. Charles Seminary at Overbrook. One Church in the southern part of our city contributed over $26,000; another in the Kensington district gave over $12,000, and a Church in the depressed coal regions sent over $3000. Such sums show the possibilities of an annual offering for Theological Education, and the intense interest of our Roman brethren in this work. The pressing need of our own Seminary is not the only or the greatest reason for my requesting an annual offering. I want every member of this Church to be intensely interested in the Institutions that train the future trainers of the souls of men. They become not only our spiritual directors, but the directors of our children and our children's children in the one thing that is of vital importance.

The Diocese of Pennsylvania has for many years been outstanding for its Sunday Schools. We are not, however, having the numerical growth which we should. While we had 56,475 communicants in 1912 and 73,108 in 1931, an increase of 30 per cent, an increase larger than the increase of population, we had the loss in our Sunday School. I called attention to this decline of the Sunday Schools in my last Convention address. Every Rector should endeavor to see that the youth of his Parish, whether of Church families or not, is sought out and brought within the influence of Christian instruction. We owe it to God as his representatives; we owe it to the youth himself; and we owe it to the community. Judges of the Court have many times borne witness to the fact that children whose early lives have been brought under the influence of Church Schools are seldom brought before them.

Sunday Schools

Our Director of Religious Education has resigned to return to Parish life. He, however, promised us all the assistance we may need. There is a force of most efficient volunteer workers in the department, and they assure me that they will endeavor to carry on the work already undertaken, with the advice and counsel of Mr. Seymour. Many teacher-training courses have been given each year and have had remarkable attendance. They will be continued during the coming fall and winter. If possible, I want to include in this department religious work in colleges and schools. We are doing this work. but not as efficiently as it could be done. Many Rectors (notably the Rector of Trinity Church, Swarthmore) are opening their homes to the students and bringing to them, from time to time men of marked influence with youth. We have a college Pastor at the University of Pennsylvania who has just completed twenty-one years of faithful and effective work at that Institution. If and when we select a Director of Religious Education, this college aspect of our work will be borne in mind.

Religious Education

In my last Convention address I spoke of the Bishop's visit for Confirmation as being his one opportunity of seeing and knowing all the members of the various congregations; and stating that although these visits are freqnently of necessity on other times than Sunday, it was still not only desirable but possible for nearly every member of the congregation to be present. I want to say how gratified I have been to see the great increase in the size of the congregations. It is always a pleasure for me to meet with the people of the Diocese. It is a cheer and help to those confirmed, to see the older members present to welcome them into the working force of the Parish.

Confirmation

Over and above this there is no greater stimulus to the desire for Confirmation than to see a Confirmation service. The service itself is beautiful and impressive; and the sight of thirty, forty, or fifty men, women, and children all seeking God's strength for the performance of their Christian duty and the winning for themselves of Eternal life—is there anything more persuasive and compelling?

Two specialists from the National Council made a thorough investigation of the work of this Diocese with the view to suggesting improvements. In many departments changes were suggested, some quite radical. The Department of Social Service and Institutions they declared was the best of all our departments, and better than any such department within their knowledge.

Social Service

This condition is largely due to the fact that for years we have had as our Chairman and leader, Mr. Clinton Rogers Woodruff, now the distinguished Director of Public Welfare of Philadelphia.

The care of children committed to us by the Courts of our five Counties, is the last work undertaken by this department. The cost of this is considerable and will be constantly increasing. It is, however, worth it. We ought to take care of our children. We want at least one full-time worker to be present at Court; and a very considerable sum of money for the support of the children. The wonderful fruitage of this work in manhood and womanhood is beyond computation.

What the Diocese of Pennsylvania owes to its women cannot adequately be expressed in an annual address. Each Convocation has its Auxiliary or Aid having general meetings, sometimes attended by hundreds, twice or three times a year.

The Woman's Auxiliary

We have also the Diocesan Auxiliary with its separate sections for every department of work—Diocesan, Foreign, Domestic, Indian Hope and Colored. In no Diocese is there a better informed or more generously disposed body of women than we find here. Their intense interest in every phase of missionary life; their efforts to bring the missionaries in contact with the people; and their increasing labors until the wants of the Mission field shall be supplied—these show their wonderful work in this great Diocese.

Diocesan Contributors

For many years it has been necessary for the Bishop to meet the Missionary Deficit by a wild effort to get from $50,000 to $75,000 between December fifteenth and January fifteenth, the date of the closing of the books. This year, owing to the financial depression, the Parishes were not able to promise as much as in previous years, and the outlook was very depressing.

The idea was then adopted of forming a body of Diocesan Contributors. In many Parishes there are individuals who can give a fair share to the Parish Quota, and yet be able to send a considerable gift to the Diocese direct. In this way the Deficit can be provided for, without the frantic eleventh-hour effort. We have been gratified by the response. While we are far from our goal, over $57,650 has been subscribed to the Deficit and over $6350 for the Whitsunday Offering for the National Council Deficit. We hope that many more will send their gifts. Our idea is to make this a permanent organization, so that our Missionary work, and especially our ill-paid Missionaries in the field, will not suffer because of failure of the Parishes to meet their quotas. Many of our weaker Parishes and Missions cannot do it. It is hoped, however, that in every Parish a well prepared and well conducted Every-Member Canvass will be made, that we may interest the entire Church in the whole work of the Church. Have your director and committees appointed before summer that the work may be taken up at once in the fall.

In conclusion, I want to speak on world conditions and their relation to the work of the Church of God. I will not attempt to give a picture of the world today.

World Conditions

Loss and unemployment are on every side. Some who were wealthy are now on the verge of poverty. Those who felt that a will and an ability to labor were sufficient assets to claim a living from the world, have found no field in which to invest these assets.

The country will not allow a man to starve, but feeding a person and doing nothing more will not improve his condition. There have been most generous outpourings of money, but no one has successfully suggested a remedy for the condition. Reduction of wages may be the means of reducing the prices of all things, so that the reduced amount may have the same purchasing power as the larger amount. Shortening the number of working hours may give work to a larger number, but the closing of plants will cut off the power of the working man to purchase; and will greatly delay the return to normal conditions.

In 1893 we had a depression. The day after the presidential election the whistles blew and the announcement was made that a large textile mill would open the next week. The Vice-President of that mill said to me, "We are stacked with goods to capacity. We have not a single order. We must, however, give work to the people that they may be able to purchase. They will go to the retailer; he to the wholesaler; the wholesaler will eventually come to us. We will get no money for a year, but unless we put money in the workingman's hands, there can be no resumption of industry." I think his logic good.

I want to speak not on the economic side, on which I may not be capable of speaking, but on the moral side. How did the world get into this condition? If we know the road in, we might find the road out. I can sum up the situation by saying that in large measure it is produced by selfishness and sin.

The idea of business is the exchange of services, that both buyer and seller may profit. Mr. Chesterton says, "Trade has been put in the place of Truth. Trade, which in its nature is a secondary and dependent thing, has been treated as a primary and independent thing; as an absolute."

Men make, not what they think will serve, but what they think will sell. It is not to give something to the world that will actually be of value, but to produce something that will get them a monetary return. Should sales be poor, instead of seeking some other supply of human need, they train men in salesmanship, that they may force their goods upon unwilling purchasers; and show men who have little or no money how to get a momentary pleasure at the risk of future distress.

Human sin also plays its part. In the manipulations of stocks so that their weaknesses are hidden until the issue is floated on the unsuspecting buyer; in the offering of collateral of known worthlessness by favored borrowers, sometimes officials of the bank, men in whom their fellows have confidence; then there are cases of actual embezzlement. This is not business—this is sin. These things, if not the primal cause, have greatly added to the seriousness of the situation.

Jesus Christ is the antidote for sin and selfishness. "He was manifested to take away our sin." "Whether is greater," he asks, "he that sitteth at meat or he that serveth? I am among you as he that serveth." The world wants to sit at meat; Christ teaches us to serve. As selfishness and sin dug the way into our wretchedness, so I believe that sacrifice and service will point the way out. Christ is the embodiment of sacrifice and service. There never has been a time in the history of the world when it more needed Christ than now. Woe to the world if it does not get a great lesson from the present condition. God only is to be loved. He alone abides when other comforts flee. For many, other comforts have fled; do they know God enough to feel His presence and support?

O Jesus! if in days gone by
My heart hath loved the world too well,
It needs more love for love of Thee
To bid the cherished world farewell.

Take all the light away from earth,
Take all that men can love from me;
Let all I lean upon give way,
That I may lean on nought but Thee.

What shall we say about our great Missionary fields? Shall we withdraw men now, when the world needs them most? Shall we say that economic conditions make it impossible to bear the message of the Gospel. Our Missionaries have gone in simple faith that the Church would sustain them. In the best of times they have been given salaries barely enough to keep soul and body together. They could not provide for the future. The local income now has almost ceased. In one middle west very weak Diocese, forty coal mines have closed. The sole support of forty Missions has been taken away. The National Council has reduced the salaries of all Missionaries ten per cent, bringing them down to want, and making it almost impossible to assist their suffering parishioners.

Unless the National Council received $400,000 at Whitsunday they say a further cut must be made. That Council asks our Diocese for $30,000 to make up this amount. We have in addition nearly $40,000 to make up what we have told the National Council to expect of this Diocese. Brethren, we can do it. God has blessed us. We may have lost, nearly everyone has; but we can show our thankfulness to God for what we have, by giving liberally of the gifts that He has bestowed upon us. Millions have been given to feed the hungry. I thank God for it. I wish twice as much might have been given; but we cannot starve the souls of men and withdraw work just at the time when the world needs it most. Our Christianity is standing on trial. Jesus Christ is looking at us, our pleasures and our luxuries and saying to each, "Lovest thou Me more than these?"

May the God of Peace make you perfect in every good work to do His will.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

JOHN POYNTZ TYLER, Fourth Missionary Bishop of North Dakota, died suddenly at his home in Fargo, North Dakota, on July 13, 1931, in the seventieth year of his age. He was born June 15, 1862, in Hanover County, Virginia, being educated in the public and private schools. At the age of 18 he became a teacher in the public school and entered the Theological Seminary of Virginia three years later, being made Deacon in 1888 and ordained to the Priesthood in 1889. For a short time he was at Westover Church, Chesapeake City, and later Rector at Christ Church, Millwood, Virginia, for four years, leaving there to go to Saint Paul's Church, Greenville, Ohio. In 1896 he came to this Diocese as Rector of the Church of The Advent, Philadelphia, leaving in 1904 to become Archdeacon of Virginia, where he remained for four years, when he accepted a call to Saint John's Church, Hagerstown, Maryland, acting also as Archdeacon of Cumberland County. Elected at the General Convention of 1913 as Missionary Bishop of North Dakota, he was consecrated on the Feast of The Epiphany in 1914 by Bishops Tuttle, Peterkin and Randolph. His work in North Dakota was characterized by the intense missionary interest which marked his whole life. A man of attractive personality and a preacher of eloquence, he was much sought after in many urban pulpits. Feeling that the time of his retirement had arrived, he had sent in his resignation to the House of Bishops only two weeks before his death.

THEODORE IRVING REESE, Sixth Bishop of Southern Ohio, died at his home in Cincinnati, after several months' illness, on October 13, 1931, in the fifty-ninth year of his age. In the Spring of 1929 he suffered a slight stroke of apoplexy from which he never fully recovered. He was born in New York City on March 10, 1873, receiving his education at Saint Paul's School, Concord, and at Columbia and Harvard Universities, being graduated from Cambridge Theological Seminary in 1897. He was made Deacon that year by Bishop Capers, acting for the Bishop of New York, and ordained Priest the following year by Bishop H. C. Potter. His first work was at Saint Michael's Church, Milton, Massachusetts, which he founded and of which he was the first Rector, from 1897 to 1907. In 1907 he accepted a call to Trinity Church, Columbus, Ohio, where he remained until 1913. He was consecrated Bishop on March 25, 1913, by Bishops Vincent, Leonard and Francis, serving as Coadjutor to Bishop Vincent until the latter's resignation on October 2, 1929. Of open mind, he possessed rare qualities of balanced judgment, while his rich capacity for friendships and his lovable personality combined to make him a true father in God and endeared him to all with whom he came in contact.

ANSON ROGERS GRAVES, Retired Bishop of The Platte, died at his home in La Mesa, California, on December 31, 1931, in the nintieth year of his age as the result of a paralytic stroke suffered some months ago. He was born at Wells, Vermont, April 13, 1842, receiving his early education in the Public Schools and at Hobart College, where he graduated in 1866. Entering the General Theological Seminary, he was made Deacon by Bishop Potter in 1870 and ordained Priest the next year by Bishop Littlejohn, becoming Rector of Saint Luke's Church, Plattsmouth, Nebraska. In 1874 he was Curate at Gethsemane Church, Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he returned as Rector from 1883 to 1890. In 1875 he was Rector of All Saints Church, Northfield, leaving there to do missionary work in New Hampshire and Vermont, until 1880 when he was elected Rector of Saint Peter's Church, Bennington, in the latter Diocese. In 1889 he was elected Missionary Bishop of the District of The Platte, which was created by the General Convention in that year, and consecrated on January 1, 1890, by Bishops Tuttle, Hare and Burgess, being therefore the second Bishop in seniority at the time of his death. In 1908 part of Wyoming was added to The Platte and the name changed to the District of Laramie, a further change being made in 1908, when the territory was reduced and it became the District of Kearney. The strain of the work, however, had proved too much even for his strong physique and he was compelled to resign his jurisdiction in 1910, when his health broke entirely. Since that time he had been living in Southern California, taking Mission Work in San Joaquin when possible.

CAMERON MANN, First Bishop of South Florida, died at his home in Winter Harbor on February 8, 1932, in the eighty-second year of his age. He was born in New York City on April 3, 1851, graduating from Hobart College in 1871, and from the General Theological Seminary in 1873. He was made Deacon that same year and ordained to the Priesthood in 1876, both by Bishop Coxe. For one year he served at Missions at Branchport and Dresden, New York, becoming Curate at Saint Paul's Church, Albany, in 1874. In 1876 he accepted a call to Saint James's Church, Watkins, where he remained until 1882, when he became Rector at Grace Church, Kansas City. On December 4, 1901, he was consecrated Third Missionary Bishop of the District of North Dakota, by Bishops Tuttle, Talbot and Atwill, where he served until 1913, when he was transferred to the District of Southern Florida as Second Missionary Bishop, becoming Diocesan when the Diocese was formed in 1922. Of a most pleasing personality, an author and poet of no mean ability, he was dearly loved by all his people and by the Church at large.

Of Priests of this Diocese:

WILLIAM HENRY CAVANAGH, a Retired Priest of this Diocese, died in the Harrison Home on August 12, 1931, in the seventy-third year of his age. He was born on December 9, 1858, at Ontario, Canada, graduating from the University of The South in 1886. He was made Deacon in 1889 and ordained to the Priesthood the year following, when he became Rector of Trinity Church, Louisville, Kentucky. In 1891 he accepted a call as Assistant Minister at Saint Peter's Church, Germantown, remaining there for two years. He spent 1894 at Oxford University, England, returning to Philadelphia the year following. In 1902 he accepted a call as Rector of Saint James' Church, Hestonville, Philadelphia, where he remained until 1923. Since that time he acted as Supply Priest in various Parishes, until his health gave out in 1926.

THOMAS BELL, Rector Emeritus of Trinity Church, Centerville, died on December 8, 1931, in the eighty-eighth year of his age. He was born at Moreland, Westmoreland County, England, on July 28, 1844. In 1866 he entered Hobart College, leaving at the end of his Sophomore year for Nashotah House, where he was graduated in 1869. He was made Deacon the same year and ordained to the Priesthood in 1871 by Bishop Coxe. His first work was at Trinity Church, Iowa City, Iowa, and later on in Greensboro, North Carolina. In 1902 he came to this Diocese as Rector of Saint Stephen's Church, Clifton Heights, where he remained until 1910, when he accepted a call to Trinity Church, Centerville (Buckingham) as Priest in Charge, becoming Rector Emeritus the following Easter. Since that time his health has been gradually failing, until he was taken to the Episcopal Hospital last fall, where he remained until his death.

WILLIAM FRED ALLEN, Chaplain at Byberry Hospital under the City Mission, died on December 26, 1931, in the seventy-eighth year of his age. He was born in London, England, on June 12, 1854, and for a time was a Minister in the Congregational Church. He came to this country about 1884, preparing for Holy Orders at Kenyon College and the Western Seminary. He was made Deacon in 1898 and ordained Priest in 1900 by Bishop Leonard. For the next fifteen years he was in various Parishes at Niles and Cleveland, Ohio; at Greensville, Kane, Scranton and Tamaqua in Pennsylvania; at Antigo, Wisconsin, and at Snow Hill, Maryland. In 1915 he went to S. Mark's Church, Baltimore, and Saint James, Indian Head, where he remained until he came to this Diocese in 1920 as Curate at Saint Luke's Church, Germantown. In 1922 he accepted appointment in the City Mission and developed the work at Byberry to a truly remarkable degree.

WILLIAM JAMES COX, Rector of Saint Andrew's Church, West Philadelphia, died very suddenly at the University Hospital on January 2, 1932, in the fifty-ninth year of his age. He was born in Capetown, South Africa, in 1873, graduating from King's College, Nova Scotia, in 1898. He was made Deacon in 1897 and ordained Priest the year following by the Bishop of Nova Scotia. From 1897 to 1899 he was Curate at Saint Peter's Pro-Cathedral and Master at Saint Peter's School in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island; later on he became Rector at Puguash and Wallace, Nova Scotia, serving also as Chaplain of the Second Canadian Contingent in South Africa until 1901. For the next two years he was Curate at Saint George's Church, Sydney, Nova Scotia, when he became Assistant Chaplain at Halifax. In 1905 he accepted a call to Saint Thomas' Church, Washington, coming to this Diocese three years later as Vicar of Grace Church Chapel. His ministry at Saint Andrew's Church commenced in 1911 and he served also as Dean of the West Philadelphia Convocation from 1919 to 1931. Of a peculiarly genial disposition he was greatly loved by his own people and by all with whom he came into contact. He was a member of the Executive Council of the Diocese during his Deanship and served on many other Committees.

SIMEON LORD GILBERSON, Rector Emeritus of Saint James Church of Kingsessing, Philadelphia, died at his home on February 7, 1932, in the seventy-seventh year of his age. He was born in Wheeling, West Virginia, June 17, 1855, studying at Trinity College in 1877, after which he went to Hobart College, where he graduated in 1881. For the next year he attended the General Theological Seminary, entering the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1885 and graduating in 1888. He was made Deacon in 1889 by Bishop Whitaker and ordained to the Priesthood in 1890 by Bishop Leonard. He served at the Divinity School Mission in 1889 and was Rector of Saint Paul's Church, Salt Lake City, from 1889 to 1890. In this latter year he became Priest in charge of Saint George's Church, Philadelphia, and in 1892 Assistant Minister at the Church of The Saviour. In 1893 he accepted the call to Saint James Church, Kingsessing, serving there thirty-seven years until his retirement in 1930. He was Dean of the West Philadelphia Convocation from 1902 to 1919, and a member of many Diocesan Committees at various times.

EDWARD MARSHALL FRANK, a Priest on the staff of the City Mission, died in the Episcopal Hospital on March 7, 1932, in the fifty-ninth year of his age. He was born in Camden, New Jersey, on September 15, 1873, graduating from Nashotah House in 1899. He was made Deacon and ordained Priest by Bishop Grafton that same year, serving in the Diocese of Wisconsin for four years at Grace Church, Sheboygan. In 1905 he went abroad, studying for a Ph.D. at Zurich and receiving Old Catholic Orders. In 1906 he returned to this country and became Assistant Minister at Grace Church, Chicago. He was transferred to this Diocese in 1908 as Rector of the Church of The Advent, Philadelphia, where he continued for ten years, coming in contact with many foreign-born and building up that work. In 1929 he became a Chaplain at the City Mission, where his work, especially along relief lines, was very effective.

LUCIEN MOORE ROBINSON, a Retired Priest of the Diocese, died on March 13, 1932, in the seventy-fifth year of his age, at Tampa, Florida. He was born in Hartford, Maine, on January 3, 1858, graduating from Harvard College in 1882. He studied also at Haverford College, University of the South, the Episcopal School at Cambridge, the Divinity School in Philadelphia, and in Germany. He was made Deacon in 1886 by Bishop Stevens and ordained to the Priesthood in 1889 by Bishop Whitaker. From 1887 to 1891 he was Assistant Minister at the Church of The Epiphany, Philadelphia, leaving there to become Instructor in Liturgics at the Divinity School in Philadelphia, being elected Professor in 1904, and also to the Chair of Canon Law at that School in 1909. In 1928 he was compelled to resign owing to ill health and was elected Professor Emeritus. He served also as Master at DeLancey School from 1892 to 1902, on the Faculty of the Church Training and Deaconess House from 1891 to 1928, and as Chaplain of the Church Home for Children for several years. He was a member of the Board of Examining Chaplains of the Diocese from 1893 to 1929, Custodian of the Standard Prayer Book from 1917 to the day of his death, a member of the Standing Liturgical Commission of the General Convention and of the Commission on Work of Deaconesses.

FLOYD WILLIAMS TOMKINS, Rector of the Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, died at his home on March 24th, 1932, in the eighty-third year of his age. He was born in New York City on February 7, 1850, receiving his early education at the Charlier French Institute, graduating from Harvard University in 1872, and from the General Theological Seminary in 1875. He was made Deacon that year by Bishop Potter and ordained to the Priesthood the year following by Bishop Spalding. From 1875 to 1883 he did Mission work in Colorado, Wyoming and the Middle West, accepting a call to Saint James Church, Keene, New Hampshire in 1893, and leaving there the year following for Calvary Chapel, New York City, where he remained until 1888. For the next three years he was Rector at Christ Church, Hartford, Connecticut; from 1891 to 1894 at Saint James Church, Chicago, Illinois; and from 1894 to 1899 at Grace Church, Providence, Rhode Island. In 1899 he began his long and fruitful Rectorship at the Church of The Holy Trinity, which included the opening of Phillips Brooks Chapel and the increase of the Endowment Fund from $10,000 to over $600,000. He was among the first to broadcast the Church Services. In 1907, and from 1913 to 1931, he was a Deputy to the General Convention from this Diocese, being a member of the Commissions on Church Music and on Evangelism of the General Convention at the time of his death. From 1914 to 1919 he was Dean of the Convocation of South Philadelphia, acting also as Overseer at the Divinity School for many years and as a Trustee of the General Theological Seminary. Among his very many other activities might well be mentioned his term as President of the Philadelphia

Federation of Churches, as Preacher at Harvard University from 1902 to 1905, and as Chaplain of the First Regiment National Guard of Pennsylvania for ten years. In spite of his various other duties he yet found time to write many devotional books, a page of daily Meditations to The Living Church from 1928, and the weekly religious study for the Public Ledger, as well as to act as Missioner quite frequently. A Christian gentleman, a gifted preacher, a courageous citizen and leader in every cause of civic righteousness, a man of indomitable energy and utterly unselfish spirit; the constant friend and helper of all—his recognized worth and ability were amply attested to by the overcrowded Church at the Burial Service and the nearly five thousand people who passed the catafalque where the body lay with its Guard of Honour, despite the storm which raged all day. The interment was at Cambridge, Massachusetts.

LLEWELLYN NEVILLE CALEY, Rector of Saint Martin's Church, Oak Lane, died very suddenly from a heart attack on April 15th, 1932, in the seventy-third year of his age. He was born in London, England, on July 4th, 1859, receiving his early education in London College, where he graduated in 1884, when he was made Deacon and ordained the next year by the Bishop of Rochester. From 1884 to 1887 he was Curate at All Saints' Church, Hatcham; 1887 to 1888 at Saint Matthew's Church, Bayswater; from 1888 to 1891 at Saint Paul's Church, Brixton, all in London. He came to Christ Church, Brooklyn, New York, in 1891, accepting the Rectorship of the Church of The Nativity, Philadelphia, in 1893, and of the combined Church of Saint Jude and The Nativity when that merger was accomplished in 1908. In 1921 he became Rector of Saint Martin's Church. But these parochial connections were only a small part of his intensely active and loyal Ministry. He served as Dean of the North Philadelphia Convocation from 1913 to 1920, and of the Germantown Convocation from 1928 to the day of his death. He was on the General Board of Religious Education for many years, Deputy to the Provincial Synod in 1914 and 1915, Deputy to the General Convention from 1919 to 1928, and Alternate Deputy in 1928, a Member of the Executive Council from its inception in 1919, and Chairman of the Department of Missions, as well as of the Committee on Dispatch of Business in the Convention of The Diocese since 1904, and of many other Committees. He was also Editor of the American Church Sunday School Lesson Board from 1903, and Founder of the Galilee Mission.

Of Deputies to the Last Convention:

W. W. FRAZIER, JR.,
Secretary.

APPENDIX E

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the Year 1931

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the year 1931, audited, is submitted herewith.

The Diocese was unable to pay its quota of $229,000 to the National Council, but sent $200,876.75. Of this sum $50,996.50 was received in response to appeals made by Bishop Taitt for this purpose.

The Diocese was further unable to meet in full its own obligations. A loss of $5,459.50 was sustained. This, with the deficit of $9,593.69 existing at the close of the previous year, makes a deficit of $15,053.19 in the affairs of the Diocese as of December 31, 1931.

It seems obvious, therefore, that the general business situation has had its effect upon the Diocese and that every effort must be made to liquidate this deficit, to reduce the increasing overdrafts and to adjust the budget to the income which can be reasonably expected.

The attention of rectors, accounting wardens and treasurers has been called to the resolution of the Convention in regard to remitting their missionary moneys monthly in order to reduce our overdrafts. The Diocese must meet its obligations monthly and unless the parishes and missions remit with equal regularity it is not possible for us to pay our way without creating overdrafts upon which interest must be paid. The following table will show how churches remitted their missionary funds to the treasurer's office during the past year:

Number of Parishes and Missions Remitting per annum	Number of Remittances per annum

The Treasurer and the Assistant Treasurer desire again to express their grateful appreciation to Messrs. Drexel and Company for the continuation of the advantageous arrangements whereby a credit to a limited amount has been extended, and to the parishes and missions and the Woman's Auxiliary, as well as other financial organizations of the Diocese, for the ready assistance in the preparation of the records comprising this report, and to the financial staff in the Treasurer's office for its efficient and faithful services throughout the year.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Executive Council

The Executive Office comprises the Office of the Executive Secretary and Field Secretary, the Treasurer's Office and the Publicity Department.

(1) As this report is written, the Diocese is putting into operation a plan desired by the Executive Secretary during the past four years, viz., to arrange, through a group of Diocesan Contributors, for any Diocesan or missionary deficit in the early part of the year rather than in December. This plan has been endorsed by the Bishop and the Deans of Convocation; and Dean Shreiner, Chairman of a Committee of the Finance Department, is giving the leadership to make the plan a success.

(2) While Pennsylvania paid $200,876.75 to the National Council, which was a larger percentage than any other great Diocese was able to pay, she did not reach her quota ($229,000). There were a number of reasons for this. The business depression and closed banks, causing the parishes to pay $30,000 less than their Expectations, were largely contributory. On behalf of the Field Department it should be said that the Finance Department was in charge of the effort to balance the Budget during the latter part of the year; and the Bishop did yeoman service by raising $50,996. The one large Diocese that reached its quota was Long Island.

(3) The Committtee on Advance Work of the Field Department led by its efficient Chairman Mr. Spencer Ervin; and the Committee elected by Convention raised $71,409.58. With these funds the Diocese was able to pay its pledges for Advance Work to all Missionary Bishops except to Bishop Littell of Honolulu. He has received $7,898.97.

(4) The possibilities of the Summer Volunteer Work and its helpful reaction to the missionary life of the parish are recommended to the attention of the Clergy and the Laity.

(5) Building contracts and operations were supervised at the Mission of the Transfiguration, St. Matthew's Mission, St. Francis of Assisi, and St. Mary of the Annunciation.

(6) During the past eight years the Commission on Recruiting for the Ministry has aided eighty-four students; and of these, sixty-nine are preparing for or are in the active ministry of the Church today.

(7) All except four of the mission properties in the Diocese have been appraised by the Church Properties Fire Insurance Corporation, and insurance totalling $2,534,755 has been placed.

(8) The Publicity Department was glad to welcome Mr. Warnock, Managing Editor of "The Church News," upon his return. This paper has been sent to every Vestryman. The three Church Extension Fund calls have brought in $9,324.34.

(9) May the Field Secretary again ask the brethren to let him know as far in advance as possible any Missionary Preaching Service, so that it may be worked into his schedule. During the four years he has been visiting the parishes, courtesy and kindness without exception have been his lot. He is very grateful to the Clergy for this, which makes this part of the work very pleasant.

THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

There were nine meetings held during the year, when reports of the Deans, Resolutions referred by the several Convocations, and the work among the foreign born and the colored people were considered.

The Department is much indebted to the Bishop, who, because of his thorough knowledge of the Diocese and his years of service, is able to give wise counsel and advice.

The total budget of the Department of Missions, amounting to $72,027.27, helps with the work of sixty-two Diocesan Missions, also the Galilee Mission, the Sheltering Arms, State College and Mont Alto.

During the year the plans for the Mission of the Transfiguration, 7th and Bigler Streets, were approved, the contract let, the building completed and opened for Service on Easter Day.

St. Matthew's Mission, Oxford Circle, after arranging to unite with the Church of the Messiah, Port Richmond, raised additional funds and the Bishop laid the cornerstone of the Parish House on All Saints' Day.

A survey was made of Pennfield, in Chester Convocation, and work started there with sixty-four in the congregation and forty-five in the Sunday School.

Plans for a small Parish House at Trinity Church, Solebury, in Bucks County, have been completed.

A new Italian work, the Mission of St. Francis of Assisi, has been opened in West Philadelphia Convocation. The growth has been excellent.

With the approval of the Bishop, St. James's Church, Philadelphia, has taken care of St. Elisabeth's Parish and thus helped with the Missionary Work of the Diocese.

The Department possesses a fine lot in the West Oak Lane Section, surrounded by hundreds of houses which present a missionary opportunity such as Mayfair presented three years ago.

The Department has welcomed Dean Shreiner, of Chester, and Dean Hill, of South Philadelphia. These men have joined the other members in giving unsparingly of their time and energy in helping to solve the many important missionary problems that arise in this great Diocese.

Concerning our work among the foreign born, Archdeacon Bullitt writes: "The completion of the new chapel for St. Mary of the Annunciation (Italian Mission) has led to a large increase in the work there. The attendance at Services has nearly doubled. The communicant list has grown very considerably, and in spite of the unemployment in Kensington the offerings are slightly larger. All this has been due to the new building made possible by aid from the Campaign Fund, from the Rector of St. Clement's Church, and other friends of the Mission, as well as by the personal work of the members of the Mission, under the leadership of the Missionary, the Rev. Silvio G. Biagini.

"Conditions in the Polish Missions in Conshohocken and Manayunk, and in the Roumanian Sunday School at St. John's, Northern Liberties, continue the same as last year.

"The Polish Mission at the Advent shows improvement from last year, as does the Holy Redeemer. A new mission among the Italian-born was begun February 15th in rented rooms in West Philadelphia. The Rev. G. A. Scarinci is in charge. Services are held in both Italian and English. Commencing with an attendance of about fourteen Italians, the work has outgrown the capacity of its rooms, there being, December 31st, twenty-six families on its rolls and an average attendance the last few months of over fifty, and in December of over sixty on Sunday mornings and forty-six on Wednesday evenings. A large class is being prepared for Confirmation. (February 18, 1932, eighteen were confirmed and fifty-eight received.) Begun as an experiment, St. Francis of Assisi, as it is named, has proved itself worthy of continuance and support.

"Miss Deane, the Italian worker, has continued her invaluable work, especially in South and West Philadelphia, and I am sure that many Italian families would rise up to call her blessed for the help she has been to them in their dire troubles."

Archdeacon Phillips writes about his work as follows: "During the year 1931 I visited and preached a number of times at the following Mission Stations: St. Augustine, Holy Spirit, St. Cyprian, Ascension, St. Mary, St. Monica, St. Chrystopher.

"I have held interviews with the Clergy to talk over their problems and give advice.

"Last summer I took no vacation, but remained at home to take Services for missionaries on their vacations.

"I suggest that St. Cyprian should remain where it is. The location is a good one. The Parish House should be finished by the addition of another story, so that there can be a place for religious worship and one for social activities. The building should front on Lindbergh Avenue. The people are poor but enthusiastic."

THE DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Modern research and experiment in the field of religious education have brought us a great wealth of new ideas, methods and materials.

Familiarity with conditions throughout the Church, and visits to the parishes and missions of the Diocese, reveal much fine work, but often sadly antiquated equipment and outgrown methods.

The scope of religious education is all-inclusive. It is concerned not only with the education of children of school age as in former years, but we now realize the necessity of it for youth and adult life.

Only education and religion can guide the world out of the present-day confusion.

Through Christian education your Department is combining these two forces in a program affecting people of all ages.

Those who have a thoroughgoing knowledge of the new way in religious education recognize that we have in the Diocese of Pennsylvania an equipment, a library and an organized training centre which are unsurpassed in any other Diocese in the Church.

This has all been brought to pass within a brief period of five years.

We believe that the greatest forward step in religious education in the Diocese was made when a Director of Religious Education was appointed.

The Department has placed at the disposal of the Diocese the advantages of new ideas, policies, methods and materials.

Those who have availed themselves of these opportunities have reported marked progress and definitely good results.

There is a decided improvement in the tone and quality of the devotional, informational and expressional life of our Church schools.

Much of the improvement in the teaching personnel, we believe, is directly due to the training given in the Diocesan Normal School and to the influence which emanates from it.

Our Diocesan Young People's Fellowship was organized eight years ago and has now grown to include more than fifty organizations. The leaders of the Y. P. F. have during the past year very definitely seized hold of the aims for which we have been striving, with a marked increase in devotional spirit and studious application of Christian principles, together with a simplification of organization which has resulted in greater efficiency.

The task of reaching students at our educational institutions is tremendous. We have, however, made definite progress, not only at the University of Pennsylvania, where the Diocese has a full-time student pastor; but through the hard work of the Chairman of our Commission on Students, together with the efforts of busy rectors near the institutions, we have exerted a Christian influence in other important centres of learning in the Diocese.

In the field of Adult Education comparatively few people, we believe, adequately estimate the power of the Christian pulpit through regular and systematic teaching.

In addition, our Department is striving to put into operation in study classes directed by able leaders courses which our Commission has outlined and suggested.

The office in Room 30, Church House, has served the Diocese in religious educational matters with extreme activity throughout the year. We have record of at least 106 parishes and missions using the "office" during 1931, as against 93 in 1930. There is an average of 122 visits a month to Room 30 for information, advice, lantern slides, curriculum materials, supplies, library books for teachers, etc.

A monthly Bulletin, which a cut in our appropriation has compelled us to abandon, has been a useful agency for all the Commissions of our Department and a medium through whose paragraphs religious educators have received definite help.

The Director has made 92 official visits to 40 parishes, missions and institutions upon invitation, representing the work of religious education.

He has knowledge by personal visits of 126 of the 195 Church schools in the Diocese. During the past year he has prepared four sets of lesson materials and a series of worship services for Church schools.

He has served as instructor and as Director of Curriculum at the Church Training and Deaconess School, 708 Spruce Street, Philadelphia.

In May the Bishop appointed him Chaplain of the Church Home for Children, 58th Street and Baltimore Avenue, Philadelphia, with oversight of its Church schools and its services, assisted by a lay reader from the Philadelphia Divinity School and by four students from the Church Training School.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE AND INSTITUTIONS

The Department, consisting of 35 members, 21 clerical and 14 lay men and women, held ten meetings during the year. At the June meeting Hon. Clinton Rogers Woodruff was elected Chairman and George R. Bedinger Secretary. On February 12 a luncheon in honor of William S. Keller, M.D., of Cincinnati, Chairman of the Department of Social Service of the Diocese of Southern Ohio, was arranged, to which a number of persons not members of the Department were invited. The October and December regular meetings were luncheons to which the clergy of the Diocese and lay men and women active in Church work were invited.

In October the guests of honor were the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes, the new Executive Secretary of the National Department of Social Service, and Spencer Miller, Jr., the Consultant of the Department in its Industrial Relations. In December the Department had the pleasure of entertaining Mrs. I. Albert Liveright, the new Secretary of Welfare of Pennsylvania; E. D. Solenberger, Secretary of the Children's Aid Society, and Stanley Bright, Chairman of the Child Welfare Division of the Public Charities Association, at a meeting devoted to "Work with Children."

The policy of holding several meetings at institutions of the Diocese was begun by having the April meeting at St. Martha's House and the November meeting at the Episcopal Hospital.

New members of the Department elected during the year include Miss Ethel Springer, Dean, Church Training and Deaconess School, and the Rev. D. Wilmot Gateson.

Social Service Sunday was observed at St. James' Church on the third Sunday after the Epiphany—January 25.

The Department joined with the Central Committee of the five Episcopal Dioceses in Pennsylvania to support at the 1931 Legislative Session four important welfare measures, as follows:

1. To maintain the policy of the State appropriating $10,000,000 biennially for the development and improvement of State-owned institutions for the unfortunate.
2. To secure the establishment of a State Psychiatric Hospital in Allegheny County.
3. To secure an appropriation of $4,115,938 for the Mothers' Assistance Fund.
4. To provide double compensation in the case of injury or death of illegally employed minors under 18.

The first three measures were introduced by the Public Charities Association of Pennsylvania and the fourth by the Pennsylvania Public Education and Child Labor Association. All four measures passed and were enacted into law.

The Department sent delegates to two important conferences during the year: The National Conference of Social Work at Minneapolis and the State Council of Churches at Harrisburg.

The Department continued its membership in the Pennsylvania State Council of Churches, the Philadelphia Federation of Churches, the Pennsylvania Committee on Penal Affairs, and the Central Committee of Social Service Departments in Pennsylvania. It joined the Community Council of Philadelphia.

When Dean West retired in June, after serving as Chairman for four years, he recommended that:

1. The Department should have a whole-time employed Executive Secretary. He might be secured from among those now employed in Social Service Work by the Diocese.
2. The Department should publish a pamphlet, describing the valuable institutional work being done in and by the Diocese.
3. The monthly meetings should from time to time be open meetings, where some timely social problems may be presented.
4. We should strive for closer and more sympathetic relations with welfare agencies.

The attendance at meetings has been excellent. The Department has Committees on various important matters, and arranged in October for an Executive Committee of six to meet at the call of the Chairman between the regular meetings of the Department.

THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The work of the Department of Publicity does not consist merely in publishing "The Church News," though that is a very important piece of work, but it branches out into every field of Church activity, co-operating with the several departments of the Executive Council. It arranges the literature and sends out "The Bishop's Call for Church Extension." During 1931, three calls were issued, namely: (1) St. Mary of the Annunciation, (2) Messiah, Port Richmond, and St. Matthew, Oxford Circle, and (3) Trinity, Solebury. It supplies information to the secular press. Mr. Warnock, Publicity Director, is in constant touch with the newspapers, and he has managed to keep out of the press articles that would not be helpful to the Church, as well as supplying information that is helpful. The Department distributes to the parishes and rectors information and cuts that are valuable for local and church papers. Special articles, accounts of Conventions and Convocations, and important events are prepared and published by the Department. The Department has the care of arranging for meetings and assigning rooms in the Church House. In 1931, over 500 meetings were held at 202 South Nineteenth Street, and the office was able to find suitable quarters for all groups.

"The Church News" has maintained its high standing among church periodicals. Mr. Warnock, the Managing Editor, was not able, owing to serious illness, to give his full time to the work. The Department and the Diocese are indebted to Rev. A. R. Van Meter, Miss Cairns and the members of the Executive Office for the splendid service they rendered in carrying on Mr. Warnock's work.

The Business Manager, Mr. Charles H. Clarke, deserves a vote of thanks for the efficient work he has done for "The Church News." For the year ending June 30, 1931, the paper showed a profit of $789.92. The Executive Council has authorized the continuance of mailing "The Church News" to all vestrymen of parishes and officers of mission committees. A large number of vestrymen pay the regular subscription of one dollar per year, and it is sincerely hoped that more will do so and in that way reduce the expenses of the Diocese.

The Chairman of the Department of Publicity, the Rev. Charles H. Long, wrote to all the clergy in the Diocese asking for suggestions for improving "The Church News" or criticisms of the paper. The letters received in return spoke very highly of "The Church News." The Department wishes to commend again the Rev. George Copeland, Editor-in-Chief, for his excellent editorials. During the year your Chairman has been in conference with Mr. Gilbert, Organist at St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia, and teacher at the Philadelphia Divinity School, in regard to conducting a Department of Music in "The Church News." This work will begin in 1932.

THE COMMISSION ON RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

The Commission wishes to record its appreciation of the years of service given by the former Chairman, Dean Toop. He spent much time and spared no effort in helping the young men whom the Clergy of the Diocese brought to his attention, and he deserves the thanks of this Convention for the assistance given the future clergy of the Church. The Commission, with much regret, has accepted his resignation, and at its December meeting elected the Rev. James M. Niblo to fill the vacancy. He also is greatly interested in helping young men who are considering the Ministry as a life work.

During the year 1931 the Commission made grants to thirty candidates and postulants for the Ministry, expending $4,650. Sixteen students received $200, thirteen received $100, and one received $150.

During the life of this Commission (since 1924), eighty-four applicants have received aid; and of these sixty-nine have entered the Ministry. Of the other fifteen, some received very little aid and some gave up because of ill health.

The Commission, after much deliberation, has adopted the following rules for its guidance in the future:

1. The Commission is ready to consider the application of men over twenty-one (except in cases of exceptional ability) who have been admitted Postulants in this Diocese.

2. The Commission will expect all beneficiaries to submit reports of their scholastic standing from their educational institutions at the end of each term, in order to have their appropriations continued. If the beneficiary is dropped from his class, or if the Commission is not satisfied he is making satisfactory progress in his work, the Commission reserves the right to withdraw his appropriation.

3. The Commission feels that Postulants receiving aid from other sources should not be aided by this Diocese except in case of unusual need.

4. Beneficiaries are expected to keep in touch with this Commission through one of its members appointed for that purpose.

FIELD DEPARTMENT

1. The Committee on the Advance Work, led by its Chairman, Mr. Spencer Ervin, continuing its efforts from 1930, sent literature into every parish (17,550 copies of the pamphlet, "Information Concerning Pennsylvania's Share in the Advance Work Program of the General Church," were distributed), and speakers into 47 parishes, where they were requested. The Chairman reported he found the greatest difficulty was with the Vestries, who seem to feel that their only duty is to attend to the material responsibilities of their own parish. This Committee raised $52,192.91 to May 5th, when a Committee elected by Convention took its place. This Committee raised $13,216.67. The Dean of Chester obtained $6,000 additional, which brought the total to $71,409.58. With these funds, the Diocese was able to pay its pledges for Advance Work to all Missionary Bishops except the Bishop of Honolulu. He has received $7,898.97.

2. Missionary Conferences for the Clergy and Laity were held at the Church Farm School, Glen Loch, Pa. There were more Clergy (138) and a largely increased attendance of the Laity (74). Some of the important findings of the Laymen were:

(a) Greater publicity should be given to the missionary work of the Church, and we urge an absolute minimum of 4 missionary sermons a year.

(b) We suggest that the Church publications be encouraged to print all interesting missionary news.

(c) Each Convocation should form a Laymen's Committee, to co-operate with the Dean in carrying out the work of the Convocation.

(d) We urge that more church activities be injected into Church clubs, and that, where possible, they be converted into Bible Classes.

(e) We believe that the solution of the problem of creating sufficient interest to raise the increased quotas for 1932 depends on thoroughly informing the people just how the money is to be used, and planning a definite program.

(f) There should be an organized effort to have all Laymen visit Diocesan institutions.

(g) We advise the use of the red side of the duplex envelopes; and urge parishes to make twelve equal monthly payments on their quotas.

3. The Department, as in former years, has conducted a Missionary Speakers Bureau, supplying every parish and mission that desired it with speakers about the work in the Diocesan, Domestic, Indian and Foreign Fields. The Field Secretary has used his spare time, and also his Sundays, to accept invitations to present the Missionary Cause in the different parishes of the Diocese. From personal observation he can testify that many of the smaller parishes and missions are alive with missionary enthusiasm. After learning their requests by correspondence, he has sent 36,398 pieces of missionary literature to the parishes. Year by year the amount requested is increasing.

4. The progress of the Summer Volunteer Work is encouraging. During the summer six young women went out from this Diocese as workers, two to South Dakota, where they did exceptional work under the Rev. Paul H. Barbour, and four to Southwestern Virginia, under Deaconess Williams. During the Autumn and Winter their interesting addresses before various groups in the Diocese have created increased enthusiasm for the cause of Missions. This phase of the Summer Volunteer Work, that of strengthening the bond between this Diocese and the Mission Field through the personal contact of our own young people, is as important as the very material assistance which, through the volunteers, we give to the missionaries to whom they go.

5. While Pennsylvania paid $200,876.75 to the National Council, which was a larger percentage than any other great Diocese was able to pay, she did not reach her quota ($229,000). There were a number of reasons for this. The business depression and closed banks, causing the parishes to pay $30,000 less than their Expectations, were largely contributory. On behalf of the Field Department, it should be said that the Finance Department was in charge of the effort to balance the budget during the latter part of the year, and the Bishop did yeoman service by raising $50,996. The one large Diocese that reached its quota was Long Island.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

The Church Properties Fire Insurance Corporation has appraised all the Mission Properties in the Diocese except four, and these will be appraised early in 1932. This enables us to ascertain whether these properties are under or over insured, so that the insurance may be adjusted if necessary. A number of the larger parishes are requesting us to appraise their properties with a view to securing adequate fire insurance, and are taking advantage of the 20-payment plan on five-year policies by renewing their expiring policies (or taking out additional insurance) with the Church organization.

At the close of the fiscal year which ended December 31, 1931, the records of the Diocese show that we had placed with the Church Properties Fire Insurance Corporation insurance totalling $2,534,755, as compared with $1,648,660 in 1930, showing a gradual increase.

Machinery has been set up in the Treasurer's Office which gives a complete record of all insured properties and the expiring date of all policies is carefully checked, so as to prevent the possibility of a lapse.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The Treasurer's report calls attention to the financial results of the business for the year. It is obvious as a result of unusual business conditions there was a falling off in receipts, thereby preventing us from meeting our obligations, both to the General Church and in the Diocese.

On account of the importance and scope of the financial problems in the Diocese the membership of the Department was considerably increased; much thought and study has been given to the balancing of the budget, not only for the year 1931, but for the year 1932, and we have endeavored to come to the assistance of several parishes and missions who were seriously affected by unemployment and a subsequent loss of the givings of its communicants.

Beginning with October, the hour for the monthly meeting of the Department was fixed from 11.30 A. M. to 12.30 P. M., and on the Wednesday of each month preceding the meeting of the Executive Council, and the attendance has been especially good.

An intelligent study of all the financial problems in the Diocese is being made, so as to have the situation under control and secure the best results possible.

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

Many changes have taken place in the Convocation of Chester during the past year, 1931; first, the death of our Dean, and but a short time later the death of our Bishop. Both Bishop and Dean have left an indelible impression, and have laid strong foundations upon which their successors may build.

The genial Coadjutor at once became our Diocesan, and his long service as Dean of the Convocation makes his counsel and advice invaluable to the new Dean.

The Convocation has been most fortunate in its last two leaders, and it was a comparatively easy thing to pick up the work where they had left off. The fine spirit of co-operation on the part of the Clergy and Laity has enabled us to plan and to accomplish results that seem to be tremendously worth while.

The Laymen's Committee, as well as the new Executive Committee of the Convocation, have made a splendid contribution to the development of the work of the Convocation. Not only the response to the Advance Work, but the high level of Missionary giving plainly speaks of their devotion and their ability to accomplish the things they set out to do.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester has completed its pledge to the Diocese and is now working for and planning to aid the Missions in the Convocation. They have adopted the plan of helping in a large way one Mission a year, with the understanding that the Mission itself will raise for its own needs the same amount of money as that given by the Woman's Auxiliary.

There seems to be an ever-increasing interest on the part of the women of the Convocation, and we hope that this interest will continue to increase and that they may have a greater share and blessing in our Missionary work.

Dean Bird has been succeeded at S. Asaph's by the Rev. Richard T. Lyford, of the Diocese of Massachusetts. He is young and progressive, and bids fair to continue along the same broad lines the work that has been done by Dean Bird in his parish.

The Rev. Henry J. Beagen, for more than twenty years Rector of S. Luke's, Chester, has retired, and for the present no new man has been elected to fill the vacancy.

S. George's Memorial Church, Haverford Township, has been built and beautifully furnished. As yet it has not been presented to the Bishop of the Diocese by the Trustees of the will of the late Mr. Nevil, but plans are in the making for its administration.

S. John's Church, Lansdowne, and its Rector, Rev. Charles L. Tuke, D. D., has become a "Big Brother" to Trinity Church, Collingdale. We believe this arrangement will be mutually beneficial.

Trinity Church, Swarthmore, has entered upon a program of expansion. Bishop Taitt laid the cornerstone on Saturday, November 7th, and the new Church will be occupied early in the Spring. The up-and-doing Rector, Rev. J. Jarden Guenther, has led his people to a new conception of their opportunities in this college town. Rector and people are to be congratulated upon the work they are doing.

The Main Line Sunday School Association has held its Fall, Winter and Spring meetings, and under the able leadership of its President, the Rev. Richard H. Gurley, has presented diverse and interesting programs. The usefulness of this association to our Church Schools is apparent by the number of teachers and officers attending the meetings.

I cannot close this report for the Convocation of Chester without expressing my sincere appreciation of the co-operation and courtesy extended to me by the Clergy and Lay people of our parishes. I know that as time goes on we will dare to do greater things in the Master's Name.

CHARLES W. SHREINER

GERALD POWELL, Treasurer

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The Spring and Fall all-day meetings were held as usual, the former at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, and the latter at Redeemer Mission, Springfield, with an average attendance of 292 from the 50 parishes and missions in the Convocation.

Bishop Taitt at the meeting in May paid high tribute to the life and work of our late Dean, the Rev. B. N. Bird, whose development he had watched with interest and affection from boyhood. He also presented and cordially welcomed the new Dean, the Rev. Charles W. Shreiner, D. D.

The special speakers were Miss Littell, sister of the Bishop of the Missionary District of Hawaii, and Mrs. Wm. Haines, Vice-President of the Pennsylvania Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The financial statements as shown by the Treasurer's report, which follows, were a source of much satisfaction and joy. All obligations were fulfilled, and in addition we were able to give as a memorial to Dean Bird the sum of $1,000 towards the Colored Hospital at New Bern, North Carolina. This hospital had been selected by Dean Bird as the special object for which the Chester Convocation would work in connection with the Advance Work Program of the Diocese.

For the year 1932 it was decided to help substantially a mission in our Convocation, the one selected being Holy Sacrament, Highland Park.

It is interesting to note the result of our Memorial Fund, which was started a few years ago and now amounts to $2,281.10. This amount is made up of memberships of twenty-five dollars or more, given in memory of a deceased member of the Woman's Auxiliary. The interest only of this fund is used for Convocation Work.

THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The Convocation of Germantown contains 36 Parishes, 2 Chapels and 15 Missions, 5 being in the City of Philadelphia and 5 in Bucks County, thus making 53 centres for the worship of God and the work of the Episcopal Church; and these have about 16,500 communicants, more than a quarter of those in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

For the year 1931 the quota of this Convocation was $88,446. The parishes and missions stated that they expected to be able to give $103,706, and they contributed $112,875.10, with $6,016.25 towards the special appeal for the deficit, making a total of $118,891.35 contributed, for which we heartily thank them.

For the year 1932 the expectation from the various parishes and missions amounts to a little less than $100,000; but this Convocation has stated that it hopes to be able to raise $105,000 this year. The lately formed Committee of Laymen, representing each parish, will, we believe, materially help in reaching, and we trust in exceeding, the amount stated that our Convocation will give during this year.

S. Matthew's Mission, Oxford Circle, under the able direction of the Rev. William O. Roome, has been greatly encouraged by the erection of a fine parish house on a splendid site at Large and Comly Streets, close to the Roosevelt Boulevard which will soon be completed, and when dedicated will be known as the Church of the Messiah.

S. Gabriel's, Feltonville, located at Front Street and Roosevelt Boulevard, energetically led by the Rev. William T. Metz, has continued to do good, aggressive work, and has paid off its mortgage, on which we heartily congratulate him and his people. Having now over 260 members, we trust that this mission will soon become a self-supporting parish. The erection of a Rectory, for which there is plenty of room on their fine lot, would help them toward this much-to-be-desired goal.

S. Andrew's, Somerton, is a comparatively small mission which is doing a good, quiet work, with considerable possibilities of development when the growth of the City of Philadelphia reaches that section. This mission greatly needs a larger Sunday School room, for they are very crowded at present.

Ascension, Rhawnhurst, has probably felt the financial depression as much if not more than any mission in the Diocese. Moreover, when it was established there was only one other church in Rhawnhurst; but now there are four others, all weak, and the Roman Church has spent $200,000 in a school building and parish house. The present Ascension Mission building, which has to be used for every kind of activity on week days as well as for worship on Sundays, is very dismal, being largely a basement. The pressing need there is the completion of the building by the erection of the second story as a church to be used for worship only. And we are glad to be able to state that Bishop Taitt has kindly given permission for the April call for the Church Extension Fund to be devoted to that purpose.

For years the Diocese has owned a fine and well-located site in the West Oak Lane section near Ogontz Avenue and 74th Avenue; but owing to a lack of means the Diocese has not been able to start work there. This is a great pity, as there are many members of the Episcopal Church living in that neighborhood, several of whom are regularly attending a Community Church within two squares of our lot. As this section of Philadelphia has grown very rapidly of late years, this location provides one of the most desirable opportunities for the starting of a mission in our Diocese; and we do hope that we may be able to start one there soon.

There have not been many changes in the interesting group of missions in Bucks County under the faithful administration of the Rev. W. D. Parker, during the past year. Plans have been prepared for a small parish house and some alterations to the church at Trinity Chapel, Solebury, both of which are greatly needed. And we hope that at least the parish hall will be erected this year. The work needs it, and the people deserve it.

The Rectory at Grace Church, Hulmeville, has had some quite necessary repairs made, as it was in really a bad condition. Repairs are also sorely needed to the roof and walls of the church there, which has just completed its two hundredth anniversary. I most sincerely wish that we could commemorate its anniversary by carrying out those repairs.

It would be a great help to the work at Langhorne if the present unsuitable parish house could be sold, and one erected close to the church on ground which is owned by the Diocese. If there could be a resident priest at New Hope he could fulfill the duties of student pastor for the girls at the Holmquist School, and for the boys at the Solebury School, as well as conduct the services in the Mission of S. Philip at New Hope and of Trinity at Solebury. He might also possibly teach in one of those schools.

It would also materially assist the growth of the work of the Mission of the Holy Nativity at Wrightstown if a small Community House for social activities could be built, and a bus provided to gather children for the Sunday School.

The work carried on at the other missions in Bucks County, namely, Incarnation, Morrisville, which having over 250 communicants we hope will shortly become a self-supporting parish; S. Andrew's, Yardley; S. Paul's, Edgely; Emmanuel, Quakertown; and S. Wilfred's, Dolington, has been well maintained during the past year.

We are very hopeful that the Big Brother movement, inaugurated in this Convocation during the past year, whereby thirteen of our parishes have kindly undertaken to foster thirteen of our missions by sending representatives to visit them in the Spring and Autumn, will be a source of real encouragement to many of the missionaries and missions, who are often discouraged because of their isolation.

We appreciate very highly the devoted service so graciously rendered by Miss Elizabeth S. Brown as President of the Woman's Aid of the Convocation, and we deeply regret that she has felt it was necessary to resign that position, which she has so ably filled for several years. It is with real pleasure that we welcome Mrs. Jenne as the new President, and we wish her, and her faithful band of co-workers, much success in carrying on the important work of this most useful agency.

The Convocation of Germantown has one mission among the Poles, that of S. Mary's, Manayunk, which is under the faithful administration of the Rev. Ambrose Baczewski, and has witnessed a good growth during the year. We are very grateful to the Rector and Vestry of S. Stephen's, Wissahickon, for kindly granting them the use of their parish house for Sunday and week-day schools.

We also express our heartfelt thanks to Mr. Casper Wister Haines and to Miss Haines for the use again last Summer of their spacious and centrally located grounds for the Annual Garden Party, so well managed by members of our Woman's Aid.

We are most grateful to the officers and members of the Woman's Aid of the Convocation for the enthusiastic work they accomplished during the past year, and for the great financial help they have given, especially for the $2,000 they contributed towards the Diocesan Campaign Fund. We are glad to append their report and the report of their Treasurer, of which they may well be proud; and we ask all the parishes and missions of the Convocation to send representatives to the meetings of the Woman's Aid at our Convocational gatherings.

With many thanks for most kindly co-operation, I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

LLEWELLYN N. CALEY
Dean

THE WOMAN'S AID TO CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

I have to report a successful year in the work of the Woman's Aid in spite of the difficulties of the times. All the stated meetings were held and well attended, as well as a Quiet Day on March 2nd at Calvary Church, Germantown, conducted by the Rt. Rev. Samuel B. Booth, D.D., Bishop of Vermont, and the Autumn Devotional Day at Grace Church, Mt. Airy, which was conducted by the Rev. Ernest C. Earp, Rector of the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr.

I am glad to report the completion of the pledge of $10,000 to the Diocesan Campaign Fund, on which the final payment has been made. The annual pledges which in 1931 were for the maintenance of automobiles for mission work in Bucks County have also been paid and amounted to $400.

Gifts of money were made to the Church of the Resurrection, to Bishop Booth for mission work in Vermont, and to the Rev. Waldo D. Parker.

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN, 1931

During the past year there has been a notable increase in the Sunday School enrollment in two of the missions of the Convocation; at Trinity, Gulph Mills, there has been an increase from 75 to 135, and at S. Anne's, Willow Grove, the number has grown from 75 to 107. In both places the increase indicates, we believe, a real growth in activity and usefulness.

At S. Anne's, Willow Grove, the Missionary-in-Charge, the Rev. George W. Lamb, has received, by appointment of the Bishop, the assistance of Mr. George C. Anderson, a divinity student, as Lay Reader. Mr. Anderson is giving all day Sunday and a week-day afternoon and evening to the work. The growth of the Sunday School and of other activities has greatly emphasized the long-felt need of more adequate facilities; and the January, 1932, call of the Church Extension Fund has accordingly been designated for a new parish house here. When this great need is realized, we fully expect this work will receive an impetus which should be of great and lasting benefit to the mission.

The Rev. Caleb Cresson is greatly encouraged by the prospects for the work at Trinity, Gulph Mills, and one result of the growing activity there is an increase in the contributions of the people, in a very difficult year financially, from $730 to $1,058, more than a 30 per cent gain.

At Advent, Hatboro, and Holy Trinity, Lansdale, the added expense of the new parish houses has been carried successfully, and in both places the improved facilities have been a great help to the work.

The Rev. Mr. Baczewski, in charge of the Polish Mission in Conshohocken, reports that, while the number of communicants has been reduced from 179 to 157, he believes that he has there a loyal and devoted group who are keenly appreciative of the work which our Church is doing for them. In this industrial community, where unemployment is keenly felt, the people have carried the running expenses of their work, other than the stipend of the missionary.

At Epiphany Mission, Royersford, under the leadership of the Rev. E. J. Harry, the people have contributed generously, in proportion to their ability, to put the property into good condition. They have also discharged an old indebtedness of $227.90 to the Diocese for fire insurance, a debt incurred before the present missionary took charge.

The Woman's Aid, under the leadership of Mrs. E. Druitt Crawford, has had a very active and useful year. Their second Garden Party netted $476 for the work in the Convocation and for the final payment of $500 to the Diocesan Campaign Fund, completing their pledge of $2,500. In addition, they contributed $180 for transportation expenses of the colored children of the House of the Holy Child at Ambler, enabling them to attend Services each Sunday at S. Augustine's Mission, Norristown; $50 to Building Fund of S. Anne's, Willow Grove, and $50 to Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, for an electric stove.

WOMAN'S AID OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Convocation of Norristown reports a successful year. The County Fair, held the second Saturday in June, at Penllyn, was enjoyed and the proceeds amounted to $519.18. $180.00 was sent to "The House of the Holy Child" in Ambler, Pa., to pay for the bus which takes these children each Sunday to Norristown for Services and the Church School. This has proved to be a very good arrangement.

Fifty dollars was also sent to St. Anne's, Willow Grove, towards their building fund for their Parish House, and $50.00 sent to the Mission at Gulph Mills for a much-needed electric stove. At Christmas time many presents and knitted caps were taken by the visiting committee to "The County Home" near Trappe, and to Pennhurst at Spring City.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The past year has been one of many difficulties but we have met the challenge with renewed faith and considerable progress. Nowhere has the depression been more keenly felt than in these congested parts of our city and the manufacturing centres; and all through Kensington and the Northeast, it is remarkable how the people of our parishes and missions have kept up their giving and interest and have come to appreciate new spiritual values.

It was impossible for our Convocation to meet the quota of $89,876.20, when the giving power, as shown by the expectations of last year, was $42,420.61, but we hope to do better in the future.

Those who know the situation are aware of the difficulties confronting many of our parishes and missions. Great changes have come over large sections of our district; populations have shifted; we are confronted by entirely new problems which could not even be foreseen a generation ago, and in some instances it is a real struggle for existence, and income from endowments must be spent for maintenance. This problem is before us as a Church in many sections of the diocese, but it is particularly focused in the Convocation of North Philadelphia.

When we think of the passing or removal of the Church of the Epiphany, Grace Church, St. Jude's Church, St. John's, Northern Liberties, Beloved Disciple, Zion Church, Church of the Messiah, Epiphany Chapel, and others in this Convocation—all strong, and in many instances outstanding parishes a few years ago—it is no wonder that other churches are facing great difficulties in this new age of rapid changes.

It is to be hoped that in the future the diocese will help to solve this problem—which also affects other parts of the city—in some large way, in the interest of economy, efficiency, and spiritual attainment. We realize that the difference between the quota and the expectations in this Convocation represents approximately the annual missionary deficit of the diocese, but as a rector for twenty-eight years and head of the Convocation for ten years, the Dean of North Philadelphia ventures to say that it is doubtful if more money can be expected from this section under these conditions.

With regard to the missions—they are in excellent condition and all doing good work.

Rev. A. J. Arkin has continued his remarkable ministry at St. George's, Richmond, reaching out to the entire community. It cannot be expected that this mission will be self-supporting for a long time. The members are giving and doing their utmost, and there are many changes. The more difficult the situation, the more St. George's seems to become an uplift and a blessing. This is Rev. Mr. Arkin's life work, and he has done it well.

The other St. George's is known as Venango, and here Rev. Arnold H. Hord has carried on his splendid work for over seven years. With the addition of the new parish building this mission has become a community centre for religious inspiration and social service. The enthusiasm and devotion of these people is wonderful, and we believe the Men's Club is the largest in the whole diocese, with an attendance that sometimes numbers over three hundred.

At St. Ambrose Mission a change in personnel has taken place during the past year.

After twelve years of devoted and consecrated leadership Rev. Frederick B. Halsey resigned to become Vicar of the Pro-Cathedral at Trenton, N. J. To him we owe the steady increase and spiritual growth of this mission, and it was he who carried through the new parish building project. Bishop Taitt appointed as his successor Rev. Robert C. Hubbs, who is doing an excellent work and has already won the affection of his people. With the improvement of general conditions we look forward to the time when St. Ambrose Mission will become a self-supporting parish.

St. Barnabas, at Third and Dauphin Sts., has taken the status of a mission. Last year the church was abandoned and all the activities centered in the parish house. This has proved economical and successful. Rev. Albert W. Eastburn has continued his ministry here with great helpfulness to this entire section, for St. Barnabas Mission has been the place of distribution for food and clothing, etc., during two winters. Much help has been given by outside parishes, specially the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, and St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill. It is very important that the old church and ground should be sold. It is no longer used, and is in bad repair. The rectory was greatly improved last fall by the installation of a hot water heating system at a cost of $600.00 which was met by a grant of $500.00 from the Advancement Society and $100.00 from the Woman's Aid.

There are three missions to the foreign born—two Polish and one Italian.

One of the missions to the Poles is The Holy Redeemer in Kensington where Rev. E. M. Baczewski is in charge. This work was carried on for several years in St. George's, Richmond, and has developed steadily. There is a large congregation and a parish school.

The other mission to the Poles is at the old Church of the Advent, 5th and Buttonwood Streets, and is under the Rev. J. C. Pienionzek, whose faith and efforts have been rewarded by a more hopeful outlook than was reported last year. Considerable has been done to repair the property, particularly the interior of the Parish House and priests' living quarters, but the church itself is in great need of repair, both inside and out. It is most unfortunate that this fine old church should present such an appearance to the public, and we hope in some way the means will be provided to restore the building and make it worthy of a mission of this diocese. Perhaps some friends who will remember that Bishop Phillips Brooks began here his great ministry will come to our help in time of need.

Adjoining this church, at 517 York Ave., is our Hebrew Christian Synagogue. It is a small work and the progress is slow, but is of great importance and rich in promise. The special commission under Rev. C. Herbert Reese has rendered very helpful service, also the Woman's Committee.

Miss Ormsby is most faithful and hopeful, and we rejoice that she has recovered from her recent serious illness.

Our other work for the foreign born is the Italian Mission of St. Mary of the Annunciation under Rev. Silvio G. Biagini. This mission has been a great problem in that it was overcrowded, and we did not know where it should be permanently located.

It was finally decided to buy the adjoining property at 3258 Memphis Street and build a new chapel.

This has been completed during the past year, and was dedicated at a most inspiring service with an overflowing congregation and a confirmation class numbering over fifty. The interest on the mortgage of $4,000 is being met by St. Clement's Parish. For this we are most grateful. We feel that this mission can now face the future with new interest and courage.

Further north, at Third and Brown Streets, is the old Church of St. John, Northern Liberties, where Deaconess Young carries on her settlement work which ministers physically, socially and spiritually to this congested neighborhood.

St. Bartholomew's, 25th Street and Lehigh Avenue, is another parish that has taken the status of a mission. Bishop Garland, several years ago, asked Rev. A. J. Carty to go there and see what could be done. Mr. Carty has gathered a considerable congregation and Sunday School, and the mission has taken on new life with a number of active organizations. This mission promises well for the future, but must have adequate financial help.

One of the most interesting missions in the diocese is All Souls Church for the Deaf, on 16th Street above Allegheny Avenue, where Rev. Warren M. Smaltz continues his good work. These people are widely scattered, but come together for worship and social enjoyment. The services conducted in the sign language (together with the vested choir), is most interesting and impressive, and we wish many of our church people would visit All Souls. The special diocesan Commission, under Rev. Dr. McIlhenny, has direct oversight of this mission.

There are two missions for the colored people. One of these is St. Augustine's, 2026 Columbia Avenue, which developed so successfully under Rev. Henry S. McDuffy (now retired because of advanced years and failing health), and has been carried on so faithfully by his successor, Rev. Joseph H. Hudson. There is great need here for a parish building. The church is in excellent condition, but the other accommodations are entirely inadequate for the Sunday School and organizations. This should be the next large building project in the Convocation.

And last, but not least, is the new mission of St. Christopher. Early in 1930 Rev. Henry N. Deaver, Rector of St. Thomas' Church, saw the need for reaching his people moving in large numbers into the uptown section east of Broad Street. His vision has become a reality. The first services were held in the parish house of the Church of the Incarnation with the co-operation of the Archdeacon and the Dean. A house was later rented at 1301 Master Street and last fall the mission was moved to the double property at 1211 Thompson Street, formerly the Sunnyside Day Nursery. The building had been fitted up, including a chapel, and a large community work has been developed. Rev. Mr. Deaver is now serving on full time, having been appointed Missionary in charge by Bishop Taitt, beginning November 1, 1931. There are over 500 adults and children enrolled, and the mission is filled with activity. We believe this work will become one of the largest of its kind in the diocese.

We record our sense of loss in the death of Bishop Garland, the wise leader and great administrator, who was ever deeply interested in our Convocation, and to whose missionary campaign we owe the parish houses at St. George's, Venango; St. Ambrose, and the Italian Chapel of St. Mary of the Annunciation.

We have also suffered a great loss in the resignation of Miss Laura Bell, who for fifteen years, ever since the beginning of our Woman's Aid, has been the efficient and inspiring President. Mrs. Winfield Scott was unanimously elected to the presidency, and the work is going forward most successfully under her devoted leadership. Too much praise cannot be given to our Woman's Aid. They are, as St. Paul said, striving together for the faith of the gospel, and abounding in good works and generous gifts.

We shall also miss Archdeacon Phillips, who retired from active work on January 1st, but who has promised to continue his active interest and wise counsel.

The pledge of the Woman's Aid to the Diocesan Campaign has been entirely paid, largely from the proceeds from our annual lawn fete held every June at "Wyck," in Germantown. We are most grateful to Mr. Caspar Wistar Haines, and Miss Haines, for the loan of their beautiful and historic place for these annual efforts.

WOMAN'S AID OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

ANNUAL REPORT, 1931

The year 1931 has seen a number of changes in the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of North Philadelphia. Miss Bell, President since the organization of the Aid, felt that owing to home conditions she no longer could carry the burden of the Aid, and in May presented her resignation. It was with deep regret that we knew that we must accept it. We have indeed been fortunate in being able to work under one president for so many years. We are fortunate in having persuaded Mrs. Winfield Scott to take the presidency and we hope that she will be able to continue in that office for many years.

There have been three deaths among our members during the past year: Miss McCreight, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. J. R. Smith.

The year 1931 has marked the completion of our pledge to the Diocese, but there is old work to be kept up and new work to be started, so there must be no let-up in our efforts to raise money. The new mission of the Convocation, St. Christopher's, had its formal opening in October. The work was started during the Spring of 1930 at the Church of the Incarnation. It is a sign of the shifting population in that section of Philadelphia. So many colored people have moved into that section and St. Christopher's is a leavening agency among them.

In addition to our pledge to the Diocese we gave $25, in December, 1930, for a Christmas treat for the children of St. Christopher's, and in 1931 $300 towards the running expenses of that mission; $250 for fifty new chairs and repairs to the organ at the Italian Mission; $200 to St. Augustine's which was used towards paying for their coal and the taxes on their rectory; $100 towards the repairs to the heater of St. Barnabas' rectory; $50 as a personal gift to the Rev. Mr. McDuffy, and $100 to the Dean to be used at his discretion.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

To the great surprise of the members of the South Philadelphia Convocation, Dean Toop, who had so faithfully served the Convocation for twelve years, resigned in May. His resignation, however, was not accepted until October, 1931. It was then I was elected Dean, and my only hope and prayer is that I may be able to carry on the work with the same enthusiasm and interest as did the previous Deans.

In looking over the Convocation of South Philadelphia, which extends from the South side of Walnut Street to the Navy Yard, and between the Rivers, I find that there is a heterogeneous mass of people, made up of all races of mankind. During the past twenty-five years, a number of our churches have left this difficult field, and the Church, in order to carry on, must accept the challenge.

There are, at present, in this Convocation eleven parishes, seven chapels, three missions, a French work (St. Sauveur), the Pro-Cathedral, our City Mission and Italian work. These different works have, according to the 1930 JOURNAL, a combined communicant list of 10,468, which, I am sure, makes this section larger than many of the Dioceses of the Church and Missionary Districts. The quota for 1931 was $82,761.26, and towards this the Convocation gave $59,018.72, but the total givings, including the two Specials and the Advance work, amounted to $77,668.57. This is a commendable figure from that part of the Diocese, which is undergoing so many changes. It is interesting to note that the Diocese returns for Missionary work in this Convocation the small sum of $2,275.00.

The Mission of the Transfiguration, located at Seventh and Bigler Streets, continues to minister to the needs of our people in that neighborhood. They have been abundantly blessed the past year in the completion of their new chapel, which was made possible by the Campaign Fund. The church was ready for use on Easter Day, and the Rev. Mr. McHenry, Missionary-in-Charge, states there were more than 200 people present. This bespeaks a bright future for the mission.

The Mission of the Holy Spirit for Colored people, with the Rev. Victor Holly in charge, has done a good work the past year: especially commendable is his work with children. During the two years that he has been at the mission, 100 children have been baptized. As we write this report, we are informed that Mr. Holly is soon to return to Haiti, and we have determined that this work should be carried on under a new and different arrangement. As Dean of the Convocation and as Rector of the parish in which the people of the mission meet, I will be able to give it some personal supervision.

The L'Emmanuello Italian congregation has continued its work at S. Elizabeth's Church. This entire work is under the fostering care of S. James's Church, 22nd and Walnut Streets.

The Woman's Aid continues its most excellent work under the Presidency of Mrs. Frederick Fox. The Secretary, Mrs. Walter Prickitt, informs us that a section of the Needlework Guild of America was started at the May meeting. As new Dean, I am looking forward to the earnest support and co-operation of the women.

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

In spite of the adverse economic conditions which have prevailed for more than two years, imposing a constantly increasing burden upon the people who constitute the membership of our several missions, we are able to report continued progress in every one of these missions during 1931.

S. Titus' is probably in better condition at the present time than ever before in its history. S. Monica's represents an increasingly effective ministry in its new location. At S. Cyprian's, numerous improvements and repairs have been made in and about the building under the direction of a special committee of the Convocation. The expense of this work has been borne for the most part by the parishes in the Convocation. The special committee has also made a survey of the Elmwood district which establishes the fact that the present location of S. Cyprian's is almost central with reference to the colored population in the district. The Rev. A. C. Moore has succeeded the Rev. Mr. Holly, resigned, and is dividing his time between S. Cyprian's and S. Mary's, Chester. The work at the Italian Mission of S. Francis of Assisi has gone forward, outgrowing the quarters in which the services were started.

Our work among the colored people has fallen far short of keeping pace with the enormous increase in the colored population during the past ten years. At the last meeting of the Convocation it was voted to reopen the building formerly occupied by S. Monica's, at 42nd Street and Woodland Avenue. It is hoped that work may be resumed here in the near future. The colored population in the immediate neighborhood has greatly increased since S. Monica's Mission was moved.

In conclusion, it is a pleasure to state that the members of the Woman's Aid to the Convocation have shown a warm interest in our Convocation problems and have given the Dean substantial aid in his work.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The May meeting of the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of West Philadelphia was held at S. Paul's Church, Overbrook. The necessity of raising $250 for a Campaign Fund for Missions in West Philadelphia was impressed upon the members. Mrs. Loving, Chairman of the Social Service Committee, reported that a large number of churches were aiding in this work. These churches have contributed food, coal, clothing and large sums of money, and have visited the hospitals, providing parties and treats and Easter plants, and many other things to the Philadelphia General Hospital, bringing good cheer to the patients of that hospital and Byberry. The Chairman expressed her gratitude for this co-operation in making this work possible. A motion-picture show has been arranged for every Tuesday evening at the Philadelphia General Hospital.

Dean Collins spoke of the need of money to help with the new mission of S. Francis of Assisi in West Philadelphia. The Woman's Aid agreed to give $100 for this work, which was greatly appreciated by the Dean. The Woman's Aid helped with the Blind Week, contributing small sums of money, food and other things.

Many of the churches reported having sent many articles of clothing to the City Mission, and were urged to continue sending for two months more. The work of the Italian Mission and its needs were vividly brought before us by Miss Deane. Our prayers were requested to guide us in this work. $50 was sent to the Dean to buy chairs for the mission. The Dean was also very grateful for $100 for the work of West Philadelphia Missions. He calls special attention to S. Cyprian's Mission, which was in need of immediate repairs, and hoped the women would assist in this good work.

The Fall meeting of the Woman's Aid was held at S. Barnabas' Church. Bishop Taitt opened the meeting with devotions and an address. He commented favorably on the report of the Social Service Committee, saying it was well fitted for convocational work. The Bishop spoke enthusiastically about the Chester Convocation, and the colossal work they accomplish. Mrs. Loving, Chairman of the Social Service, reported money received was $522.25; expenditures, $517.37. The committee was busy all summer giving outings, treats, canning fruits and vegetables. 6,000 persons had outings; 3,000 supplied with food; numerous gifts of radio, piano, electric fan, etc., were given. Children from the University Settlement, Brown Farm, Children's Camps, Byberry, Welfare Home and Philadelphia General Hospital were given outings. 235 articles of clothing were distributed. Crippled children were looked after and many treats given on hot days. The Chairman extended sincere gratitude to the different churches who helped make all this work possible.

Mrs. Kennedy, Chairman of Ways and Means, reported $250.00 had been sent to the Campaign Fund. The necessity of immediate repairs to S. Cyprian's Mission was brought before the members of the Rev. Granville Taylor, Chairman of the committee to investigate the conditions of the West Philadelphia Missions. He said it was necessary to do something at once, in order that they could continue their worship there. The Woman's Aid donated $25.00 for that purpose..

The Church of the Mediator reported that 1,331 articles of clothing and $112.00 had been given to the City Mission.

APPENDIX G

Report of the Church Foundation

At the Annual Meeting of the members, held May 13th, 1931, the following gentlemen were elected to the Board to serve for the ensuing three years:

Rev. Franklin Joiner — Mr. E. B. McCarthy
Rev. L. C. Washburn, S.T.D. — Mr. R. A. Morgan
Mr. H. R. Robins

At a meeting of the Board held October 21st, 1931, the Board ratified and confirmed the Contract and Lease between The Church Foundation and the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Mark's Church under which it agreed to sell to S. Mark's Church four lots of ground at Yeadon, Delaware County, and to lease the same to S. Mark's Church until the settlement has been accomplished.

Accepted a Trust for S. John Chrysostom.

At a meeting held January 13th, 1932, accepted a Trust of $50,000.00 for S. Martin's Chapel at Ithan under the will of Mrs. Sophie M. du Pont Chandler.

At a Special Meeting held March 9th, 1932, accepted the gift of the Nevil Memorial Church of St. George, together with the Endowment Fund of $250,000.00.

At this same meeting, granted the request of the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ to assign, transfer and set over to it $93,000.00 in securities and cash out of the Watson Fund to comply with the request of Henry W. Watson.

At a meeting held on April 13th, 1932, on motion duly made, seconded and carried, it was resolved to accept from Trinity Church, Centerville, Bucks County, a transfer of all property belonging to the Church upon such terms and limitations as will be designated by the Executive Council of the Diocese.

It was further resolved that the Treasurer of the Church Foundation be authorized to pay to the Rector of Trinity Church, Centerville, the accumulated salary amounting to $1,200.00, and to appropriate one-half of the income from the Endowment Funds in payment of the above advance until paid in full.

Respectfully submitted,

Edmund B. McCarthy,
Secretary.

GILBERT E. PEMBER,
Secretary.

APPENDIX I

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

In my last report I called attention to the fact that the catalogue of the contents of this office—in two manuscript books—was missing. It is a satisfaction to announce that this catalogue has been recovered.

The fire-proof vault, which was reported last year to be overcrowded with the papers, books, and other articles belonging to many Diocesan organizations has been restored to order and its contents marked and classified. This new arrangement relieves for the present the over-crowded condition—but the time is not distant, if the deposits in this room continue to increase as they have in the last few years, when a larger and more commodious vault will be required.

I have referred in previous reports to the many requests received by me for information about our Diocesan and parochial records. The growing interest in family history and the quest for genealogical data, also the searching of parish registers for information that has a bearing on legal questions, law suits and the settlement of estates, have in the last year increased surprisingly the work and correspondence of this office. Letters from all parts of this country and even from Canada testify to the interest in Pennsylvania Church, county and state archives.

Registers of parishes that have ceased to exist should be deposited, according to a Diocesan Canon, in the vault of the Registrar's Office. I hereby request the Clergy having such registers to deposit them immediately in the Church House.

ARNOLD HARRIS HORD,
Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Fourth Annual Report of the Cathedral Church of Christ

Since the date of the last Diocesan Convention the bequest under the will of the late Martha B. Hay became available for the purpose of erecting a unit of the proposed Cathedral as a memorial to her husband, the late James Hay, and of establishing an endowment fund for its maintenance, and by the recent action of the Board of Directors of the Church Foundation the greater portion of the fund held by it in trust under the will of the late Annie M. V. Watson was transferred to the Cathedral Chapter for the erection of a chapel as an integral part of the future Cathedral at Roxborough, in accordance with the Agreement between Henry W. Watson, Executor and residuary legatee under her will, the predecessors of the Foundation and the Cathedral Chapter, dated June 21, 1927.

With these two funds in their possession the members of the Chapter are in a position to proceed without delay with the erection of one or more units of the Cathedral, as proposed in their first annual report to the Convention in 1929. They have accordingly had plans and specifications prepared by Mr. Frank R. Watson for the Lady Chapel of the proposed Cathedral in conformity with his preliminary model, as shown on the topographical plan of the entire Cathedral site, described in their third annual report to the Convention in 1931, which has been on exhibition in the Church House since then and has elicited such general commendation from those who have inspected it. Bids for the work have been asked for and it is hoped that ground may be broken for the beginning of actual construction on Diocesan Day, June 11th, the anniversary which has been celebrated with appropriate ceremonies since its first designation by the Bishop of the Diocese in 1927.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Chapter,

JOHN J. COLLIER,
Registrar pro tem.

MAY 5, 1932.

The Budget for 1932

RESOLUTION OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF 1931

"Resolved, That the Executive Council be authorized to prepare the Budget for 1932 on the basis of the 1931 Budget, as to form, scope, and amount, with such changes as are necessary to meet the conditions existing in the autumn."

Pursuant to the above resolution of the Diocesan Convention, the Executive Council in June adopted tentatively a budget of $463,718 made up of these two items: Our quota for the work of the National Council, $247,000, and for the Diocesan Work, $216,718.

This total budget was then apportioned in quotas to our parishes. The returns in expectations and pledges for 1932 as the result of the parochial canvasses in December were so very far below the amount of this budget that the Executive Council, at its January meeting, was under the stern necessity of cutting this tentative budget very decidedly, and even so it was adopted as cut only for six months, and is subject to revision in June, if circumstances warrant or make it necessary.

We placed our promise to the National Council at $200,000, which is $47,000 less than our quota for 1932, and $29,000 less than we actually paid in 1930.

Our own Diocesan budget was cut to $199,622.78 or $21,121.99 less than last year, but as we have a deficit carried over from 1930 and 1931 of $15,053.19 that had to be added to our actual working budget for 1932. This reduced the decrease in the Diocese to $4,809.22.

The detailed budget is submitted herewith.

APPENDIX L

Report of the Committee on Cathedral Program

At the Diocesan Convention of May, 1929, the following Resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, The Cathedral Program, as outlined in the Bishop's Address and the Report of the Cathedral Chapter, has been greatly enlarged to include other projects in addition to the Cathedral itself—projects for which this Convention as such has a responsibility and a keen interest.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Standing Committee appoint five Presbyters and five Laymen to make a fresh study of the whole Cathedral Program from this point of view, and to review the relation of the Cathedral Chapter to the Convention as at present defined in Canon XVI, "Of the Cathedral Foundation" and report its recommendations to the next Annual Convention. The Report to be printed and circulated at least thirty days prior to the Convention.

And further—

WHEREAS, It may become advisable in the near future to provide another Episcopal Residence in the place of the one now in use, and perhaps also a permanent residence for the Bishop Coadjutor;

AND WHEREAS, It has been suggested that such residence or residences might advantageously be erected on the property of the Cathedral Foundation in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia:

RESOLVED, That a Committee of nine be appointed—three each from the Standing Committee, the Church Foundation and the Cathedral Foundation—to investigate the suitability of said site for either or both said residences, and the possibility of securing their erection thereon, should it be desired, and report their findings to the next Annual Convention, together with any other recommendations that they may care to make in that connection, and to publish and circulate their Report before the meeting of the Convention.

Pursuant to these Resolutions, the undersigned Committee (to which both resolutions were referred) was appointed and has held a considerable number of meetings. At the Diocesan Convention of May, 1930, the Committee was continued for the ensuing year.

The Committee finds the following facts:

1. The Cathedral Chapter was organized under a charter from the State; the granting of this charter was opposed by certain members of the Church, who claimed that the charter should not be authorized except under endorsement by the Diocesan Convention, but the court declined to sustain this position. The corporation when organized had all the rights of an ordinary corporation, including the right to purchase property for the purposes for which it was incorporated.

2. After the organization of the corporation a canon (No. 16) was adopted by the Diocesan Convention, which, having subsequently been accepted by the corporation, in effect constitutes a contract between the corporation and the convention. This canon (Par. IV) in terms ratified the power of the corporation to buy property; it further (Par. X) provided: "The Chapter will submit to the Convention of the Diocese an annual report, which shall summarize the work of the Cathedral during the preceding year and shall discuss any questions of larger policy which may have arisen." The rights of the Convention are theoretically protected by the section (VIII) which gives the Convention the right to nominate Canons of the Chapter each year.

3. At the time the Charter was applied for and also at the time the Canon was adopted, while no formal decisions had been recorded, nevertheless the general assumption was that the Cathedral, if and when built, would be located in the downtown district, a site on the Parkway being particularly considered.

4. In January of 1927, the Cathedral Chapter bought a large tract of ground in Roxborough and announced as its program the construction of a Cathedral there as funds could be secured; also the possible erection there of Diocesan buildings such as the Church House, Bishops' Houses, etc.; also the congregating around the proposed Cathedral site of such Diocesan institutions as might elect to remove to that location. The Chapter did not, however, submit a report covering the purchase, and discussing the large questions of policy involved.

5. A considerable difference of opinion has arisen with respect to the expedient of the Roxborough site for the Cathedral, the differences hinging on the different conceptions as to the work of a Cathedral.

Upon these facts several questions arise and have been considered by the Committee:

(1) As to the desirability of the Roxborough site for the Cathedral.
(2) As to the desirability of that site for a group of Diocesan Institutions.
(3) As to the desirability of such site for residences for the Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor and for such other buildings as the Church House and a Synod House.
(4) The relation of the Cathedral Chapter to the Convention.

1. As to the Desirability of the Roxborough Site for the Cathedral

A preliminary question considered by the Committee was its right under the Resolution appointing the Committee to consider the question of location. The Committee decided that it was within its right to do so under its broad power "to make a fresh study of the whole Cathedral program," and "to review the relation of the Cathedral Chapter to the Convention."

In proceeding to consider the matter, the Committee invited a conference with the Cathedral Chapter on the subject; to this invitation the Chapter replied that "all that the Chapter has in mind as at present formulated is expressed in the first annual report of the Chapter to the (1929) Convention," and while they politely indicated a willingness to meet the Committee, the Committee felt that their reply showed that the Chapter did not deem such conference desirable. The Committee were, however, favored by a full statement of Bishop Garland to the Committee, which doubtless represented quite fully the general thoughts in the mind of the Chapter.

The Committee is impressed with the vast importance of a correct decision with reference to the location of the proposed Cathedral. It recognizes quite fully that there are two conflicting views with reference to the proper location of a Cathedral in general. One view represented by the decision of the Chapter to buy the Roxborough location may be described as the Suburban view. Those who take this view point to the difficulty on the score of expense of obtaining adequate space in the center of a great city; they emphasize the disadvantage owing to transportation facilities and lack of parking space of the usual location of a crowded street in the heart of a great city. They emphasize the fact that as automobiles become more common, it will be as possible to secure a large attendance on special occasions at a point ten miles from the center of a great city as at the center itself. They stress the value of the peace and quiet that may be secured in a suburban location. All this and more may be advanced in favor of the Roxborough location, which, if a suburban location is desirable at all, may be conceded looking to the future to have very special advantages.

On the other hand, those who favor a central location conceive of a Cathedral as primarily a great witness to religion in the heart of a city, where it will be seen daily by tens of thousands of people and particularly as a center to which by means of great preachers, fine, impressive music, and special services for many different purposes, the great unchurched who unfortunately form a growing proportion of the population in the centre of great cities, may be reached not only on great occasions when interested people would travel great distances in large numbers, but also from day to day and week to week—a ministry which in the year's aggregate would be of great value. Such advocates look as their example rather to the important work carried on in a relatively small building by the Cathedral facing Boston Common rather than to the Washington Cathedral with the somewhat different character of population which is often stressed by the adherents of the suburban idea. The members of the Committee are themselves distinctly divided in opinion, some sharing the first and some the second of these two views.

The fundamental inquiry which the Committee feels should be answered is whether the recent choice by the Chapter of the suburban Cathedral idea is not one of such vast importance to the future of the Diocese as to warrant its full discussion in a Diocesan convention. It is, of course, true that by the existing Canon the Cathedral Chapter had the entire right to purchase the Roxborough site. It is, on the other hand, quite obvious that they could have, had they thought proper, consulted the Convention before the site was finally purchased. It is to be regretted that after purchasing the site the Chapter did not formally report the purchase, as contemplated by the Canon, and thus give an early opportunity for expression of opinion by any who questioned the wisdom of the site. Doubtless the Chapter felt that not only was it within its legal rights in selecting this site, but that the determination of a site was a matter which could better be made by a small interested group composing the Chapter rather than by the Convention at large. But it should not be overlooked that the selection of this site constituted a complete abandonment of the original thought in organizing the Cathedral Chapter, which certainly looked to the central location. Possibly for this reason, possibly because many people knowing little of the history of Cathedrals, etc., assumed that a Cathedral would have a central location, the Committee believes that there is a widespread feeling of unrest in the Diocese with respect to the choice of the Roxborough location. It believes that this feeling will unquestionably make it difficult at the moment for the Chapter to proceed with the collection of the funds necessary to build and maintain such structure at Roxborough. It believes that such feeling would be almost entirely removed if, after full discussion of the argument pro and con, the Convention endorsed the Roxborough location. It believes, on the other hand, that if after such full consideration the Convention should definitely express its opposition to the Roxborough location, the Cathedral Chapter would be well advised to abandon this location. It recommends the adoption of the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Cathedral Chapter of the Church of Christ be requested not to proceed with the erection of a Cathedral at Roxborough unless and until the Diocesan Convention has expressed its approval of the location.

Under this Resolution, if adopted, the Cathedral Chapter could at its option either ask the endorsement of the Convention at once, or if it thought it more likely that such adoption could be secured later after a campaign of education, it might withhold such report to the Convention until such time as the Cathedral Chapter may feel is most likely to accomplish its purposes. The Committee feels that it is fair to all concerned to give to the Chapter this choice of time when it cares to have the matter considered, rather than to force a decision and vote at a time when the Chapter may feel that the Convention is not adequately informed to vote upon such important matter.

2. As to the Desirability of That Site for a Group of Diocesan Institutions

The Committee is quite clearly of opinion that the Diocesan Convention has no rights or responsibilities with reference to the occupation of the Roxborough site by the separate corporations constituting what are often referred to as Diocesan Institutions. It believes that regardless of whether a Cathedral may or may not be built at Roxborough, it is wholly for the trustees of each institution to decide whether the advantages of the Roxborough location are such as to induce the trustees to transfer the work to that site. It believes that such view is unanimously held and that, therefore, no Resolution is required for this point.

3. As to the Desirability of Such Site for Residences for the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, and for Such Other Buildings as the Church House and a Synod House

Differing from the matter of Diocesan Institutions, it is, of course, quite clear that no such buildings as Church House, Synod House or possibly Bishops' residences should be built, at least unless and until the Cathedral is definitely located at Roxborough. Assuming such location, certain other considerations occur. One is as to the wishes of the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor. How future bishops may feel with respect to the matter, it is difficult to decide at present. It is quite obvious that no such buildings could be erected without the consent of the Convention, and the Committee feels that this matter may, therefore, await the time when the parties in interest may apply to the Convention for such purpose.

Another consideration applicable not only to the Bishops' houses, but any other Diocesan buildings that might be proposed, grows out of the fact that at present a large mortgage (at last report $338,000) rests upon the entire property purchased by the Cathedral Chapter. The Committee is clearly of opinion that Diocesan buildings ought not to be erected except on property that is owned by the Diocese and free from any incumbrance, and therefore submits the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That no Diocesan buildings of any character be erected except on ground owned by the Diocese, and title to which shall be in the Church Foundation, and free from incumbrances.

Still another class of considerations apply to the case of a Church House or Synod House. The present Church House is near the center of the City and has proved to be reasonably convenient for those attending the many meetings that are held there. If and when the Cathedral is located at Roxborough, and if and when houses for the bishops are erected there, it might still be a serious question whether it would not be more convenient to retain a center as a Church House, presumably either the present Church House, or 251 South 22nd Street, for the purpose of having meetings there. The Committee submits the following Resolutions:

RESOLVED, That no final plan for the removal of the Church House or the construction of a Synod House be made until those plans have been submitted to and approved by the Diocesan Convention.

4. The Relation of the Cathedral Chapter to the Convention

The Committee has given consideration to the question whether the Canon as at present drawn properly relates the Cathedral Chapter to the Convention. The manifest theory of the present Canon is (1) that the Convention is given sufficient control over the Chapter by the provision in Section 7 that it "shall on nomination of the Bishop approved by the Standing Committee, or on nomination from the floor, annually nominate two laymen * * * and two clergymen to serve as members of the Board of Directors of said corporation," and (2) that it is wiser for the Chapter thus constituted to have the final decision with respect to all matters relating to the Cathedral. There are those who believe that Section 7 should be amended so as to allow all nominations by the Convention without any prior nomination by the Bishop and Standing Committee, and there are also those who believe that however elected the Chapter in its activities should not have full power with respect to handling the Cathedral program; but the Committee has reached the conclusion that the Canon as drawn is sound. It is better that the Bishop and Standing Committee should have the first right of nomination, thus, except in unusual cases, tacitly conferring upon the Bishop and the Standing Committee the power of continuing the Cathedral Chapter in what they may think desirable hands, rather than submitting the whole question of the membership of the Chapter to the uncertainties of Convention elections. It is also wiser on the whole to give the Chapter in all ordinary cases the right of final decision, rather than to make it subject to the further ratifications by the Convention. As above indicated, however, the Committee feels that with respect to the underlying questions as to the site of a Cathedral, the Convention is entitled to be heard, and the Committee also calls attention to the fact that Section 10 of the Canon providing for an annual report by the Chapter distinctly implies the right of the Convention to know what the Chapter has done, and to express its opinion thereon. Inasmuch, however, as this right has been denied by some, the Committee suggests the addition to Section 10 of the Canon of the following words:

"The Convention of the Diocese may thereupon by Resolution express its opinion with respect to any matters covered by such report.

MINORITY REPORT

The undersigned members of the Committee on Cathedral Programme, appointed by direction of the Convention of 1929, feel constrained to submit the following minority report.

The majority report deals with three subjects: (1) the desirability of the Roxborough site for the Cathedral; (2) its desirability for residences for the Bishop and for a Church House; and (3) the canonical relation of the Cathedral Chapter to the Convention.

(1) As to the first, the undersigned are of opinion that the resolution under which the Committee was appointed placed upon the Committee no duty to review the action of the Cathedral Chapter in selecting and acquiring a site.

The Cathedral Church of Christ was duly incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania in the year 1920 for "the support of public worship of Almighty God according to the faith and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America" and by Canon XVI "On the Cathedral Foundation," Section IV, adopted by the Diocesan Convention in 1923, it was provided that "Said corporation shall have power to erect or acquire anywhere in the Diocese a place or places of worship and other buildings necessary or proper for its corporate purposes."

In execution of its corporate purposes the Chapter of the Cathedral, after mature consideration of many available sites, finally purchased a tract of land in Roxborough, Philadelphia, which seemed most desirable for the erection of a Cathedral Church, worthy of the great Diocese of Pennsylvania, and in its first report to the Convention in 1929 (a copy of which is hereto annexed, marked A) announced such purchase and stated that it was having a comprehensive plan prepared to show the general location of all the most important buildings likely to be required within the next fifty years.

In its second annual report to the Convention in 1930 (hereto annexed, marked B), the Chapter announced its receipt of over a quarter of a million of dollars, which had been applied to the reduction of the mortgage indebtedness and other liens against the Cathedral property.

In its third annual report to the Convention in 1931 (hereto annexed, marked C), the Chapter announced the completion of the topographical plan of the Cathedral property, including scale models of the future Cathedral Church and other appropriate buildings required for the development and maintenance of the Cathedral enterprises. This model had been placed on exhibition in the Church House prior to the assembling of the Convention and had elicited many expressions of approval from those who inspected it.

The Chapter has since had completed detailed plans for the erection of the Lady Chapel of the Cathedral at the site indicated on the model and has announced its hope of being able to break ground for its construction early in June.

With this very satisfactory outlook for an early start in the realization of the hopes so long entertained by the Diocese, there appears to be no adequate reason for a further discussion of the desirability of the Roxborough site for the Cathedral and its associated buildings or of the Cathedral Programme, as formulated by the Chapter.

(2) As to the second, the undersigned deprecate the waste of time which would be involved in a present discussion of a site for a Bishop's House or for a Church House and of questions respecting title to the site and of future financial policy. If and when the Convention hereafter determines to erect a Bishop's House or a Church House, the Convention will doubtless settle all these matters as may then seem wise; and the Bishop will thereupon decide for himself whether to live in a residence so erected or elsewhere.

(3) The undersigned concur in the view of the majority that Canon XVI as drawn is sound and they dissent from the futile suggestion that it should be amended by expressly reserving to the Convention the right to express by resolution its opinion on matters covered by the report of the Chapter. The right of the Convention to express its opinion on any subject from the wisdom of the Oecumenical Councils to that of our State or National Legislatures exists independently of canon. It would therefore be unwise to attempt a reservation of this right in a single case lest there should be an implication that it is surrendered in others. On the theory of the majority, what is needed is a new Canon in the nature of a Bill of Rights safeguarding the Convention in the exercise of the inalienable right of a deliberative body to express its opinion on any subject whatever whether within or without the scope of its responsibility. When such a Canon is proposed the undersigned reserve the right to vote against it.

As a substitute for all the resolutions submitted by the majority, the undersigned propose the following:

Resolved, that the Committee be discharged.

FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

(Submitted in May, 1929)

The Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ, having established its formal connection with the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania by the adoption on March 28, 1928, of a resolution of conformity and a declaration of its acceptance of Canon XVI, of the Cathedral Foundation, it submits to the Convention, as required by said Canon, its first annual report.

The most important event of the years 1927 and 1928 was the purchase by the corporation of a tract of a little over a hundred acres of land in upper Roxborough, Philadelphia, as a site for the erection of a Cathedral Church and other associated buildings.

The property consists of a plateau at about the highest level of land anywhere within the city limits, which commands a view of Chestnut Hill in one direction and of Bryn Mawr in the other. It lies at the junction of Ridge Avenue, Henry Avenue and the proposed Cathedral Road, a highway one hundred feet in width, which is planned to form a direct connection between Chestnut Hill and Bryn Mawr and upon which the Cathedral property will have a frontage of over 1600 feet. The property was acquired at a cost of a little over half a million dollars, and since its acquisition its value for Cathedral purposes has been materially enhanced by the action of the municipal authorities in placing upon the City plan a number of streets, which will entirely surround the tract and upon which it will abut, and in striking from the plan the only street which formerly intersected it. This will render it possible to make the fullest use of the property and afford the greatest freedom in the selection of sites for the many buildings that will ultimately be erected upon it, without the restrictions usually imposed in the case of such a large area within the City limits by plotted streets intersecting it in every direction.

With a view to taking advantage of this fortunate state of affairs, the Chapter is having a careful study made of the site, so as to secure a comprehensive plan for the general location of all the most important buildings likely to be required within the next fifty years. With this plan in hand, the Chapter will be in a position to proceed without hesitation or confusion in erecting from time to time in an orderly fashion such buildings as may be required, whenever the necessary funds become available for the purpose.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Chapter,

JOHN J. COLLIER
Acting Registrar

B

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

(Submitted in May, 1930)

During the past year the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ received from gifts, contributions and bequests for various purposes, included in the Cathedral project, over $259,000.

With the funds not given in trust for specific objects the Chapter was able to defray the cost of certain municipal improvements chargeable against the Cathedral property in Roxborough and to reduce the mortgage indebtedness, which the Corporation has been carrying, by a total expenditure of $103,000.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Chapter,

WM. ELLIS SCULL
Registrar

C

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

(Submitted in May, 1931)

During the past year a topographical plan of the Cathedral property at a scale of thirty-two feet to the inch was completed under the direction of Mr. Frank R. Watson, on which have been placed models of the future Cathedral Church, Chapter House, Dormitories for the Clergy, Choir School and other appropriate buildings required for the development and maintenance of the Cathedral enterprises. These models are in no sense architectural designs for the several buildings, but are intended merely to show the availability of the site for the largest Cathedral activities and the most desirable locations for the various buildings. The completion of this model has been most advantageous, for it has convinced the members of the Chapter as well as many others, who have inspected it, of the extraordinary advantages of the site for the erection of a Cathedral worthy of the great Diocese of Pennsylvania, which with its associated activities will become more and more in the years to come a center, from which the manifold influences there originating will spread beneficently throughout the Diocese. With this model as a guide, it will be possible for intending benefactors to see at a glance how to make most effective any benefactions they may have in mind and to co-ordinate their gifts in such a way as to ensure a steady and harmonious growth of the whole project.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Chapter.

JOHN J. COLLIER
Registrar Pro Tem.

APPENDIX M

Church Work Among the Jews

The Men's Committee on Church Work Among the Jews has been completely reorganized, and for the first time in eight years is meeting regularly.

The old heating plant at the Hebrew Christian Synagogue was so worn out that not one room in the entire building could be used in cold weather without supplemental heat. An entire modern heating plant has been installed and paid for. Every room in the building is now comfortable in the coolest weather. This work was done at cost of materials by a Vestryman of S. Matthew's Church. The saving amounted to over a thousand dollars.

At the Synagogue daily classes for children are held after school hours, in which industrial work and religious teaching are combined. There are Bible classes for adults on Friday and Sunday evenings, when questions difficult for the Jew are taken up and discussed. Mr. P. Shapiro, formerly a Hebrew teacher, is present on these occasions to translate and explain in the Hebrew and Yiddish.

Every few months there is a full Evening Service in the Synagogue with Rector and Choir from S. Matthew's Church. Religious moving pictures are being tried out to take the place of the sermon.

Many outside contacts are made with families and kept up through visitation, distribution of literature and charitable work.

The Christmas entertainment was especially successful in 1931. The Hebrew children presented a Christmas pageant. There were sixty-five Hebrews present, including several mothers.

The Woman's Committee on Church work among the Jews is most active and efficient. They meet regularly and devise means of raising funds for the work. One of these methods is a tea held annually at the home of Mrs. George Breed, in Germantown. Mrs. Breed very kindly loans the use of her home for this purpose. At the last tea a number of Hebrew children came from the Synagogue and repeated parts of their Christmas pageant. Mrs. Breed has made a generous contribution towards the expense of the Sunday evening services.

The work at the Synagogue is under the immediate supervision of Miss Mary Ormsby. The progress of the work depends largely upon her personal contact with the Jewish people. Some of the children who attend her classes have already expressed faith in Christ and she has cordial entrance into many homes. During the past year one member of her Bible Class was confirmed. Three young men were instructed for baptism. It seems likely that another member of the Bible Class will be confirmed next fall.

A copy of financial statement, showing a cash balance of $383.64 at the close of the year 1931, is attached hereto.

C. HERBERT REESE, B.D.,
Chairman.

APPENDIX N

Report of the Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf

Work among the deaf mutes in this Diocese, and in the neighboring Dioceses of Delaware and New Jersey, continues to be centered in All Souls' Church for the Deaf, 16th Street and Allegheny Avenue, Philadelphia. The Rev. Warren M. Smaltz is Priest-in-charge of the Mission.

As a class, the deaf are wage-earners. The present unsettled business conditions have thrown numbers of them out of employment. Their deafness is a handicap at all times in securing employment. It is doubly so now, when the supply of labor far exceeds the demand.

In spite of adverse conditions, the attendance at services has shown a marked increase. There are evidences of renewed vitality in the silent congregation. Mr. Smaltz reports two new junior parish organizations and a full choir.

By far the most exacting work during the year was the effort to aid the destitute deaf, whose slender savings had been consumed after a year or more of unemployment. This was made particularly necessary in those instances where deaf-mutes resided in rural districts having no organized welfare agencies. The Missionary reports that at one time he had over fifty individuals dependent upon his aid in whole or part for the bare necessities of life. The furniture of at least one family, whose home had been sold at sheriff's sale, had to be stored in the parish house.

In this work the Missionary was splendidly helped by the Ladies' Committee of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf at Mt. Airy, by the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Delaware, and by a number of generous laymen and laywomen. To all of the above the Missionary desires to make grateful acknowledgment. Their co-operation made it possible for him to render a real service to a large number, without regard to their religious affiliations.

As it is customary to include the financial statement of All Souls' Mission among the Parochial Reports printed in the Journal, such a report is accordingly omitted here.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES O. MCILHENNY,
Chairman.
